AN “ITALIAN BRAND” IN NORTH AMERICA

Maletti Group is an Italian Brand from Scandiano, a small town in the Emilia Romagna region, the heart of world renowned Italian excellence.
Maranello, the home of legendary Ferrari;

Sassuolo, the home of the world's best ceramics; Bologna and Modena, with their culinary refinements are all just a few miles away from our headquarters.

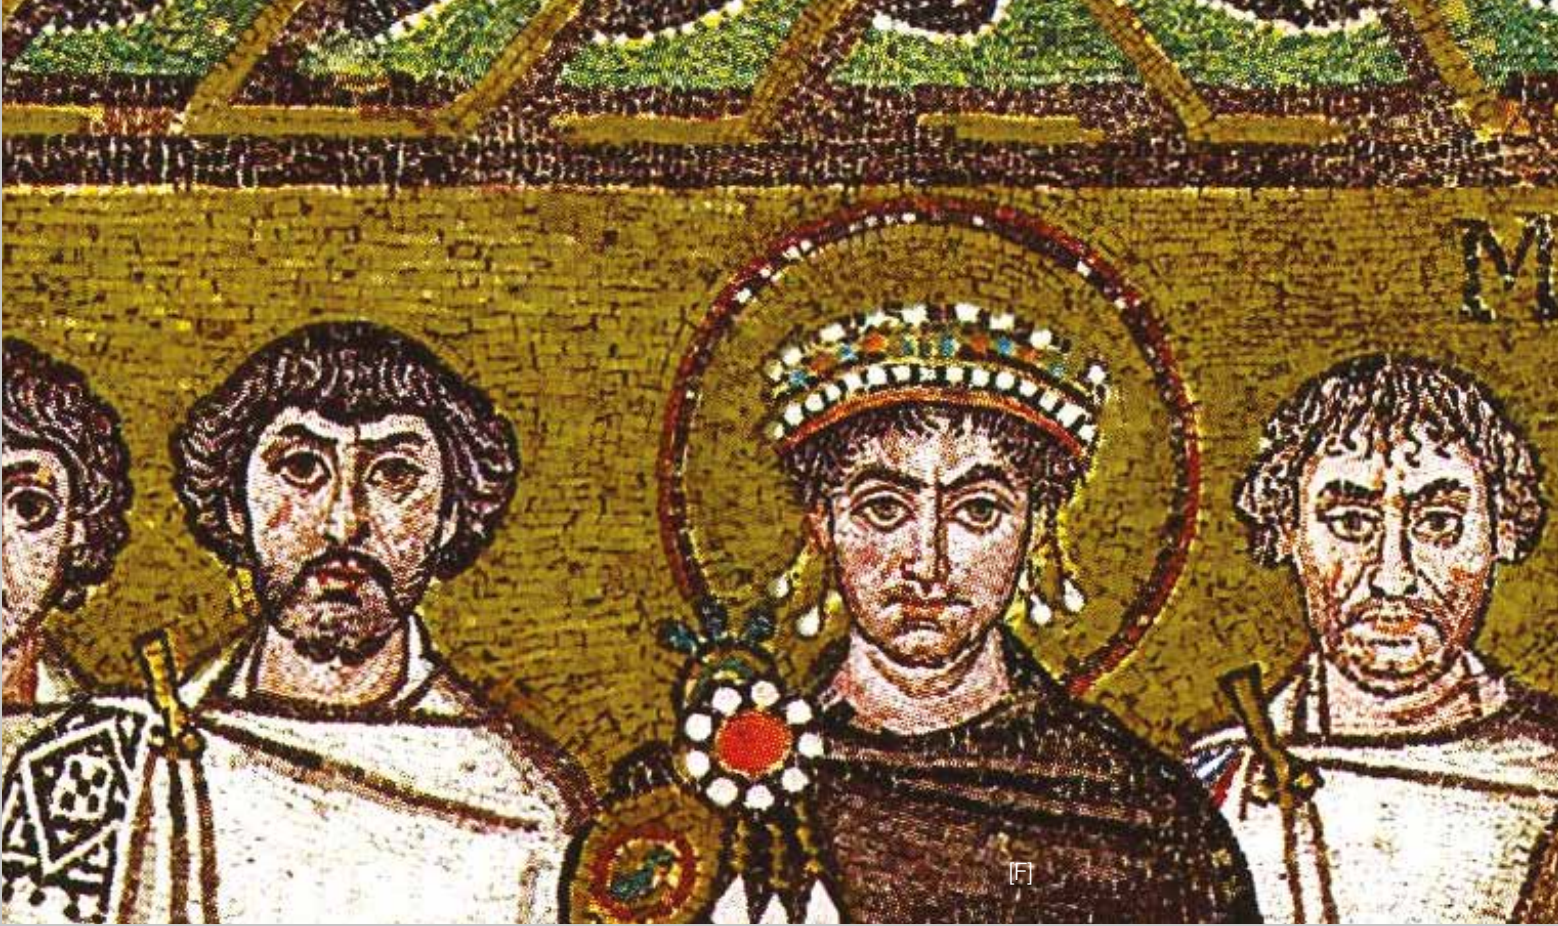

Emilia Romagna is also a land of art: the Piazza Maggiore of Bologna, the Duomo of Modena, the Basilica of Ravenna and its incredible mosaics, to name just a few.

As far as the culture is concerned, Bologna is home to the first established University of the Western world, the Alma Mater concept birthplace.

[E]

Maletti is the pure essence of its land: delivering the excellence in "know-how", supremacy in creativity and design, power of innovation and technology now proud to offer all these great values here in North America

SHAMPOO UNITS

Shampoo units are the core of a salon. Clients must feel comfortable, and get that extra cocooning, a “foster me” time.

At the same time, shampoo units must allow the operator to work with less effort.

Our wash units are designed to match both needs, thanks to the technology and innovation developed by our R&D department.
