February 11th Business Meeting Is At Kiln Library

Treasurer's Report

As of 01/31/10 the Guild's Income was realized from membership dues and quilt show ad sales. There were no disbursements in January.

North Pole Block of the Month Schedule- Finished Top is Due at March 11th Business Meeting

February      Royal Toy Works/Candy Cane Factory/ Hats& Mittens buildings

2010 Membership Dues

Membership renewals are due now. Please submit your annual dues of $15 ($1 for junior membership) at the next guild meeting or mail them to secretary, Jenny Morato. Anyone who does not renew by February 28th will be dropped from the membership rolls. Reminder- only members can enter items in the upcoming quilt show.

Change in By-Laws Creating Junior Membership Passes Unanimously

At the January 14th business meeting, the membership voted unanimously to create a Junior Membership category. Girls and boys, ages 15 years and younger, who show an interest in quilting can now join our guild if they are sponsored by an active guild member. Their annual dues are $1.00. Junior membership entitles them to attend all guild meetings and classes, as long as they are accompanied by their sponsor. The same applies to the guild's classes being taught by GSQA Circuit Teachers and/or other instructors. Junior members are not permitted to vote on any guild business. Submit membership forms and dues for junior members to Jenny Morato, secretary.

Opportunity Quilt

Sales have been pleasingly brisk for our opportunity quilt, Starburst Serenade. Please remember to bring completed ticket stubs and money to Carol Rivolo at our next meeting. She has additional tickets for those who need more. We will also be selling the tickets at Second Saturday in Bay St. Louis on February 13th and March 13th. Be ready to put your name on the list to sell tickets for either Saturday (or both!) at our next business meeting. Remember, part of the proceeds from the raffle will pay for the quilt hanging system at our April show, so these early ticket sales are most welcome.

Supply List for Chicken Bag Class

On Saturday February 27th Therese will teach the German Chicken Catch-All Bag class from 9am – 3 pm at the Kiln Library meeting room.

Supply List

- Two (2) 2" strips by width of fabric of 2 different fabrics. If you are using fat quarters, cut four (4) strips of each. If you are using fat quarters, you will be able to make two (2) chickens but you may need to reverse the fabric on the top and bottom on the second one.
- One (1) 4 ½" square for tail
- One (1) 3 ½" square for accent on tail (optional)
- One (1) 2" square for beak
- One (1) 3 ½" square for comb
- Two (2) 9 ½" squares of lining
- One (1) 7" zipper to match the top half of the chicken and thread to match that fabric
- Two (2) small buttons for eyes (optional) You can draw eyes or embroider them.

Sewing machine , zipper foot, zig-zag foot, and basic sewing kit for machine sewing.

Before class, cut the 2" strips into smaller pieces. LABEL EACH!

Sit and Sew Schedule- 1pm Mondays (Cheaper than Therapy!)

February 1 st	No Sit and Sew
February 8 th	At Kay Guillot's House
February 15 th	At Therese's House
February 22 nd	At Kay Guillot's House

Medicine Bottle Project to be Completed Immediately after February Business Meeting

We have now finished collecting empty medicine bottles. Huge thanks to Chris Jarrell for removing the labels from all those bottles! Immediately after the February business meeting any one who wants to stay can help finish the "trash caches" by gluing lids and attaching Bay Oaks labels. These used needle keepers will be our guild's contribution to GSQA seminar goodie bags.

How to Download Pictures from Picasa

Each month I post the Show and Tell pictures and other guild pix on the public pages of my Picasa photo site. Anyone who wants to download a picture to their own computer from this site can do so by

- Going to my picture home page, <http://picasaweb.google.com/kguillot/>
- Clicking on one of the albums.
- Choose the photo you want to preview by double-clicking it.
- Click on the Share button over the photo to email the photo to yourself or others – or-
- Click on the Download button over the photo to save the photo on your own computer

For those of you who want high resolutions pictures, please let me know and I can email you the images. I generally compress the files of pictures I post on the web, but I keep the high-res files on my computer.
