Color Challenge Project Day

We had a large turn out for the class Charlotte Timmons taught on the color challenge. There were 13 people who attended, some to work on their color challenge, some to observe. Most people had their color fabric and pattern enlarged already. I think everyone had a good time. Charlotte even brought her computer and printer in case anyone needed to enlarge their picture. Charlotte discussed her method and gave helpful suggestions and tips, and answered any questions. April was there to assist Charlotte and discussed her method of doing her pictures, and answered questions anyone had. It was a great class and many people almost finished their project. Thanks go out to both Charlotte and April. I think we learned a lot.

Our next opportunity to sell raffle tickets for the opportunity quilt will be held at the Fiber Arts Festival and Christmas Bazaar in Waveland, on November 19, 2022 from 9 - 5. If you need to get some raffle tickets to sell, you can contact Chris Jarrell 228-342-1179.

Sit-N-Sew

For those unfamiliar, we have monthly sit-n-sews at the Kiln library on designated Saturdays. This is time set aside to bring whatever you'd like to work on and sew in the company of other members. It starts around 9 in the morning, and they usually wrap up by about 3pm. You can come for any portion of the time...this is a flexible, stress-free day! You can bring lunch and/or snacks or make a food run (there's a subway just north and Ward's south). If you can make these occasionally, it's great fellowship and fun! The next Sit & Sew date is TBD.

Sew-N-Draw

Congratulations to Martha Slee for getting the Sit-N-Sew Quilt top. This should be a beautiful quilt. We all had a good time working together on the Disappearing 4 Patch led by Sharon Barnes. Thank you Sharon

Block Swap

We had the second block exchange at the business meeting. This is a great project to be part of, I look forward to next month's exchange.

Hancock County Library System is sponsoring the Library Christmas Trees again this year. The Kiln Library has asked us to provide a tree with homemade ornaments for their library. The members voted to participate and Martha Slee will coordinate the set up and take down of the tree.
