NOVEMBER BUSINESS MEETING

Thanks, Autumn Fest Volunteers!!!

NOVEMBER 9 BUSINESS MTG UPCOMING EVENTS & CHARITY DONATIONS

Christmas Party is December 14th at the Diamondhead Community Center (center of circle near the front duck ponds). Remember to bring your Christmas Challenge Quilts, any quilts or tote bags you've made to donate to Brenda's House, and/or donations of food or money to the Hancock County Food Pantry. This is a pot-luck style dinner, so be sure to sign up what you are bringing with Cathy Kleppner.

Rose Bud Auction: We voted to put together a basket for the Rose Bud Auction. Therese has an Edyta Sitar book that we will form the basket around. The guild is going to spend $50 on fabric fat quarters from Sitar's fabric line. Members are asked to donate sewing notions/supplies to round out the basket. The basket has to be ready for turn in at the January 26th GSQA meeting. Therese reserved a table for 10 at the Rose Bud Auction. $30 per person. There are plenty of seats left, see Therese to reserve yours today!

CALL TO SERVE!

There is still an opportunity to serve on the board and relieve some currently serving members who have sacrificed their sew time to enrich yours! Offices of VP & Secretary are available (position descriptions below). The only pre-requisite requirement is a willingness to participate and attend one short meeting per month to plan guild programs & activities.

If you are interested in serving on the board, please email Kathy Kleppner or Gloria Burlette.

Position descriptions:

Vice President-Conducts guild meetings in the absence of the president. Works to establish educational programs utilizing both professional teachers and in-house quilters with exceptional skills and techniques. Serves as contact with Gulf States Quilting Association.

Secretary-The secretary shall take notes at the business meetings and the board meetings to prepare minutes of both meetings, to then email or present each board member with copies of the minutes. The secretary shall also read the previous month's minutes at each guild business meeting.

*Happy Thanksgiving!
No Program Night this Month!*

UPCOMING CLASSES

Fractured Panels Class: January, date TBD. Sue Rountree is setting up this class, stay tuned or see her for details.

Gail Garber Class: April. There are still many openings in this class.

CHRISTMAS CHALLENGE

Are you preparing your Christmas challenge? Let me remind you. Pick a flower. Do a depiction of your flower, any size. Example: tulip can be 2 + lips or carnation can be a car + the map of the US. This can be fun or serious. Tell Therese (and only Therese) the name of your flower so she can make a cheat sheet for our Christmas party.

UPCOMING SIT-N-SEW

NOV 18

LIBRARY IN KILN

Sit-N-Sews are Saturdays set aside to join other guild members at the library with whatever project you are working on for a day of sewing & fellowship. They typically kick off about 9am and end by 3pm. Some make a day of it, some may only make a few hours. You can bring a lunch or take a break & run up to Subway, etc. It's a very laid-back atmosphere.

NOTE: If people are interested in making totes during sit-n-sew to donate to Brenda's House, Barbara Scott is willing to come answer questions and assist.
