

AMVETS RIDERS

RIDE OF REMEMBRANCE

Honoring POWs • Remembering MIAs •
Honoring Gold Star Mothers and Families •
Bringing Awareness to Veteran Suicide

SUNDAY, MAY 30, 2027
STARTING AT 12:00 PM LOCAL TIME

DEMONSTRATION RIDES TAKING PLACE
SIMULTANEOUSLY ACROSS AMERICA

Can't make it to Washington, D.C. for Rolling to Remember?
You can still be part of the mission.

The AMVETS Riders Ride of Remembrance gives every Chapter, Department, and Rider the opportunity to support the mission of Rolling to Remember right in their own communities.

On Sunday, May 30, 2027, at 12:00 PM local time, AMVETS Riders across America will ride simultaneously to:

- Honor POWs

- Remember MIAs

- Honor Gold Star Mothers and Families

- Bring Awareness to Veteran Suicide

If you cannot attend Rolling to Remember in Washington, D.C., we encourage you to participate in a local Ride of Remembrance. Together, we can ensure the mission reaches communities across our nation while supporting the goals of Rolling to Remember.

One Nation. One Mission. One Ride.

On May 30, 2027, America will hear the roar of AMVETS Riders from coast to coast.
