

BACK TO SCHOOL

George Merz a long time resident of Jamul wrote many entertaining stories in the Jamul Shopper about growing up in Jamul. Following are excerpts from his writings with the theme "Back to School"

"When I began attending the first grade in 1931 the desks were adjustable with the smaller ones in the front of the room and graduating to the rear. It was always a thrill the first day of school to move to a larger desk.

Our major subjects were arithmetic, reading, writing, history and geography. Our teacher believed arithmetic was the most beneficial training we could receive. We spent at least two hours per day studying arithmetic, mostly on practical subjects including volumes of tanks, reservoirs and ponds. Land measurements of all shapes and sizes. Purchase of supplies and sale of farm and ranch products including profit and loss statements and gain and loss percentages. This was very valuable training for me, some that is again encountered in higher education. If learning was easy, we were not allowed to make fun of the students that had problems.

The San Diego Union newspaper provided a page in the Sunday edition for stories submitted by students of San Diego County Schools. Every Monday morning the students in the upper grades would write an article about an experience they had during the weekend. The paper was delivered by mail so we didn't see the Sunday paper until Monday. We first looked to see if our story had been printed. What a thrill it was to see it in the newspaper.

When I started school we had no electricity and the only water was from a cistern, which was an underground storage area cut out of the rock and the water was cool, even when the weather was not. The water was collected from rain water off the roof. Occasionally someone would see a dead rat or squirrel in the water so we could not use the water until the cistern was cleaned and it collected new water from the rain. During that time water was carried from the neighbor to the North. Each student had a tin cup for drinking. Oh the "good ole days".

By the time of my graduation in 1938, the enrollment had gradually increased to 22 in all eight grades. There were four in my graduating class. Enrollment records from the time the school first started were stored in the school. My teacher seemed to enjoy showing me notations where members of my family had been punished!

Memories of Jamul Volunteer Fire Department

Well, That's a Deep Subject By Dave Beekman

This story I vividly remember as it was documented by a TV Crew from the old TV Show Rescue 911.... And we saw it on TV about three months later...

Seems were having a Saturday training at the main station on Hiway 94; now a fine Butler Steel building... a far cry from our old 'pole barn' and double wide trailer...

We were told to come to training in our Dress Blues so it could have been training by an outside agency like Red Cross on our newly purchased heart Defibulator... Not sure...

There were about 25 Volunteers in attendance and about half way through the training we got a call on our pagers:... "Man in a well... Montiel Truck Trail... Near Loveland Reservoir."

Luckily we had a full crew for each of our 2 New Pierce fire trucks and the Rescue. So off we went up 94 to Jefferson to Lyons Valley and up Skyline turning left on Lawson Valley road and another 2-3 miles to Montiel TT. Montiel was only half paved in those days and when it turned to dirt we still had a mile or so to go to the ranch bordering Loveland Reservoir...

When we got to the ranch we learned that a man had been trying to retrieve his water well pump from a 'hand dug' well that had had a wooden cover that had rotted out over the years and he had fallen through... the hand dug well was about 8 feet in diameter and 50 feet deep as we threw a rope down there and paced it off on the ground when we brought it up... Sure enough there was man down there moaning in pain as he had broken his back in the fall... we could see him down there only with a flashlight as he was 50 feet down.

Luckily two of our Volunteers had just come back from Heavy Rescue School and were able to rig a rescue hoist using a nearby Oak tree as they had learned in rescue school. I believe Lynn Alps was one of the fellows... not sure about the other...

We had called Life Flight upon confirming we had an injured man down there as we were sure he would need to be transported to the Hospital as soon as we got him out of his predicament. Live Flight arrived about the time Fire Fighter Alps was lowered down to the victim. Much to our surprise Life Flight had brought along a TV Film Crew who was looking for some 'action' to document that day. Good thing we had our 'dress' uniforms on and not our street clothes we usually responded in to such events.

By and by FF Alps got the patient into a back restraint device called a "Ked Sled" and we began the process of raising the injured man to the top... This was an 'all hands' event as the so called "Z rig" (a combination of ropes and pulleys) was strictly man powered...

And up he came... 'Cussing a Blue Streak' as the pain must have been excruciating. By and by we got the patient onto a backboard and hauled him off to the waiting Helicopter.

I heard that some weeks later he came by the station to thank us for his 'rescue.'

Oh. Did I mention that the TV program that we saw a few months later contained no cuss'n ? I guess they had edited that all out but I have to say the Jamul Volunteer Fire Dept sure looked good in those dress blues. That's my story and I'm stick'n to it. dB

DEERHORN VALLEY ANTLER

by Kim Hamilton ~ Lover of All Things Deerhorn

IT ALL STARTED WITH FIRE...

Fifty years ago, in 1975, Deerhorn organized its Volunteer Fire Department—DVVFD. Local Volunteers responded to medical, road, and fire emergencies. They joined, trained, were on-call, and usually first-on scene. They held our hands, kept us calm, and administered emergency first aide as needed. Volunteers were truly our life line—and supporting the DVVFD brought us all together.

By 1987 we wanted a permanent fire station for our community. Paul and Dianne Jacob offered their Brown Barn to house the equipment, while the DVVFD Ladies' Auxiliary held pot-lucks, BBQs, and Pancake Breakfasts to raise funds for our volunteers and equipment. They were great get-togethers. But they could only raise funds to support firefighters. And so the DVCA formed in 1987 to spearhead fundraising for a permanent station & community center.

Paul and Dianne Jacob donated an adjacent parcel of land. DV'ers contributed $40,000 in donations and pledges, and fundraisers were ongoing. By 1988 the Rural Protection Fire District (RFPD) assigned brand-new Engine-22 to Deerhorn to join an our old 1975 Ford Attack Pumper.

In 1990 we taxed ourselves (imagine!) to form a Community Service Zone to collect and disperse fire funds. We soon broke ground on the new station, and construction began. We added a beautiful big commercial kitchen for community events, and lots of outdoor seating. All with community funds. Chief Don Payne Fire Station was dedicated in 1993. A dream realized.

WE LOSE A COMMUNITY CENTER, BUT...

The Harris Fire in 2007 destroyed nearly half our community and normal life came to a grinding halt. Recovery and rebuilding took years. CalFire took over full-time operation of the fire station. We took the good with the bad. LOST: One Community Center. GAINED: A full-time fire station with professional firefighters and equipment.

E-22 STILL MAKING HISTORY! —Mike McDonald, CA Fire Museum

Tony Hicks and 10 other proud DV'ers rode on Engine 22 in the San Diego St. Patrick's Day Parade last March.

Engine #22 was a 1987 Ford-Pierce (Type-1/Triple Combination Pumper) and assigned new to the original Deerhorn Valley Fire Station built by the community on land donated by Paul & Diane Jacob. It faithfully served there for over 20 years until San Diego Rural Fire was taken over by the San Diego County Fire Authority administered by Cal-Fire after the Harris Fire.

It was donated to the California Fire Museum by Cal-Fire. Mike McDonald headed the restoration that resulted in its current like new condition. The colorful logo the "DVCA" uses today was developed for that ceremony and then gifted to the community.

YOUR COMMUNITY NEEDS YOU!

We've moved through so many changes— in earlier days we focused on our quest for a Fire Station and Community Center. We survived the Harris Fire, rebuilt, and got through Lockdown and Pandemic. Now there are some things we'd love to bring back, and YOU are the most important part!

We've learned how to meet without a fire station. Neighbors step up to open their properties for various events: McKinley's Field, Bradford Ranch, Jacob's Barn, McNeil's Field, Hazpaca Ranch, VechieOso Winery, and Deerhorn Vineyards for starters. Folks have offered their homes for Steering Committee meetings. We've needed to be bit more creative— but it's working.

There are voices out there who would love to have some groups to share with again: Riders, Hikers, Native Plant Lovers, Gardening, etc. Updating and republishing the Old DV Cookbook is a project in waiting.

The DVCA Steering Committee can help with resources, experience, funding and enthusiasm. There are usually about a dozen folks that attend meetings. NEXT OPEN MEETING IS A CASUAL POTLUCK AT HAZPACA ALPACA RANCH (Upper DV Rd ~ SEPT 21st ~ 5PM)

FROM THE DVCA CHAIRPERSON:

Let me introduce myself. My name is Belinda Escalera and I am a proud resident of Deerhorn Valley. I have had the pleasure of calling this beautiful backcountry home for nine years and I feel truly blessed to be part of such a special place. I cherish hearing the wonderful stories of Deerhorn Valley's rich history and meeting the many incredible people who have lived here for decades.

As your current chairperson of Deerhorn Valley Community Association, I am eager to collaborate with you on initiatives that are meaningful and valuable to our community. I dream of a Deerhorn Valley, where neighbors come together to celebrate our unique bonds and traditions. I envision vibrant gathering spots filled with laughter and the delightful aromas of homemade dishes.

I also see a community where new younger residents bring fresh energy, and ideas seamlessly blending with the wisdom and customs of those who have long called Deerhorn Valley home. My hope is that we as a community can come together to create a dynamic and welcoming environment, nurturing both our bodies and our spirits as we share meals and memories .

This is the Deerhorn Valley I dream of ~ a true haven of camaraderie, warmth, and enduring connections. I would love the opportunity to meet you and work together to make this vision a reality.

HEY - WHATS GOING ON!!

By Jean Strouf

Residents of Jamul are sure a varied group! Some of us just moved here within the past year. For a few, including some famous, Jamul is a second home. Some, including me, have lived here over 30 years, and many have been born and raised here!

Many of us know each other through the Jamul Schools, Little League, Friends of Jamul Schools, the Churches, the YMCA, and the Jamul-Dulzura Community Planning Group. 20+ years ago, a resident told me as a business person, I needed to join the Kiwanis, as it was "the only game in town" for building business relationships. The "Secret" to really enjoying where you live is to become part of the Community. How do you do that? Well, another secret to success and happiness is to just SHOW UP. I want to give each of you some incentive to Get Out and Join in the Fun! On that note, here's a start on What's Going On, mostly in August, and some advance for September.

Save the Date: The Earth Discovery's Annual Fundraiser is September 28th. Check out their website and monthly newsletter at "earthdiscovery.org". They often host walks in the State and National Fish & Wildlife properties here in Jamul, and the guides will point out some of the unique species found here.

Have you ever wondered why our Highway 94 looks pretty good, even with all the traffic? Kiwanis of Greater Jamul has their Highway 94 Cleanup on August 10, 7:30AM meeting at 13967 Campo Road (SR 94) next to the Post Office. Volunteers 18+ years old are welcome. You get to wear safety vests, hard hats and have a chance to socialize a bit!

Save the Date (Early notice): The annual Jamulfest Kiwanis/St Pius Parade and Carnival (theme is First Responders) is Sunday, October 13, followed by the Kim Silva Memorial Gymkhana.

Yes, Virginia, there really is a Tuna Club of Jamul. Meetings are the 1st Monday of each month, at 6:30PM, and held at Brody's. Their annual 2 ½ day "Joe Via Memorial Fishing Trip" is in October this year. For more information, call Trace Whitehall at 406-431-0555.

Ready to get on your Dancing Shoes? Steele 94 is hosting the following bands the first part of August. 8/2 is Latin A-Go-Go, 8/3 is The Farmers,

8/9 is Lefty Martin and his Right-Hand Band. Check out their ad here in the Shopper for more information.

Riding your horse in 100-degree temperatures is never good...for you or your horse. But you can get out early enough to Hollenbeck Canyon (Parking Lot SR94 and Honey Springs) as early as dawn. We've found temperatures as low as 65 at the beginning of the ride, and with only a short 1-hour loop ride, we're back at the trailer still under 80 degrees. We've each paid the $32 Annual Land Pass, and it is well worth it.

The Jamul-Dulzura Community Planning Group (JDCPG) is ALWAYS up to something big in our community, and they need more community input! Recently, JDCPG helped to organize the (Rural) County Planning Groups into a cohesive voice: the Association of Planning Groups. Now, the APG has a seat on SANDAG, and will hopefully soon be a voting member. This could mean more money for local roads.

Of course, the biggest current agenda item for JDCPG is the Jamul Indian Land Transfer Act, HR6443, sponsored by Rep. Darrell Issa and Sen. Alex Padilla. Four parcels including the Barrett House and the Simpson Farms Subdivision would come off our tax rolls. This act would bypass the Federally recognized process to transfer land that normally engages the local community and the County Board of Supervisors to resolve conflicts involving land use and ensuring public safety. Why does Jamul always get treated as the poor stepchild? More involvement and local voices are needed. Ignoring the issues and "letting them play out as they will" won't increase your well-being. Check the Shopper's calendar and notices by the JDCPG; You can make a Real difference.

Hopefully, in the coming months, I will alert you in advance to Community Events, Please, make a point to get involved with this wonderful community.

County of San Diego E-News Climate Action News - Butterfly Habitat Guide

As an integral component of our ecosystem, butterflies rely on native plants for food, shelter, and reproduction. By selecting the appropriate plants and cultivating a hospitable environment, residents can play a significant role in supporting local butterfly and wildlife species and promoting biodiversity. Together, we can create a network of thriving butterfly habitats throughout San Diego County, contributing to the long-term health and resilience of our local ecosystems. The County of San Diego is in the process of creating the Butterflies Habitat Conservation Plan and the Native Landscape Program.

Both of these pursuits are on a regional scale and go hand in hand with creating diverse conservation within the San Diego County region. This guide provides information on host species that can be planted to create habitat for several butterfly species found in San Diego County. Additional butterflies and their host plants can be found using the California Butterflies and Native Host Plants database provided by the California Native Plant Society. ### Anderson Alert from San Diego County Supervisor, Joel Anderson

Are you looking to make a difference in your community, regardless of age or background? County Supervisor Joel Anderson's office operates a year-round legislative internship program that is continually recruiting for those who may be interested. Legislative interns gain hands-on experience, and the program has jump-started hundreds of careers, one of those being my own! As an alumnus of the program, I can attest to its value as a "first step" in one's professional journey.

Supervisor Joel Anderson's legislative interns undertake a variety of impactful tasks. These can range from anything such as constituent services, door-to-door community outreach, to even assisting with the first draft of a County proclamation or certificate of recognition. Additionally, legislative interns attend dozens of important weekly events on behalf of Supervisor Anderson. At these events, legislative interns will typically take on a public speaking role, providing valuable career experience and preparing them for future success.

Through public speaking and event opportunities, legislative interns are also taught networking skills allowing them to make countless connections with residents in the surrounding communities. This internship opportunity is an exciting chance to meet prominent community members, develop your professional skills, and get out of your comfort zone. Supervisor Anderson's legislative internship program encourages each individual to "break their own glass ceilings" and emphasizes their role as the backbone of the entire office. One thing the program emphasizes is that the work interns do is meaningful. "My internship program provides real government and public service experience, allowing each person to do meaningful work that makes a positive difference in their community every day," said Supervisor Anderson.

Whether you are a student, recent graduate, or just looking to gain experience in local government, this is a unique opportunity to learn about public policy and contribute to meaningful initiatives that directly impact our communities. If you are passionate about public service and eager to learn, these internships provide will valuable skills and connections. By gaining these skills and expanding your professional network, you will be exposed to a multitude of exciting new opportunities!

If you have further inquiries on resources available to you, want to share your opinion, or need assistance with a County matter, contact Supervisor Anderson's office at www.supervisorjoelanderson.com/contact or by calling (619) 219-2470.

Ian Harper is a Legislative Assistant for the Office of Supervisor Joel Anderson
