Just a reminder - Barbara Zuluaga of Doggedly Dog Rescue Society KNOWS what she has been doing to these dogs is wrong and yet continues to do it year after year. Dog after dog.

Camille has been with Barbara since 2015. 6 years. Either in a crate in her house 23+ hours a day or in a boarding facility. A boarding facility that is currently under fire yet again for healthy dogs dying there. A boarding facility where 2 Doggedly dogs were found dead by staff (Porkchop and Hoss) and 2 Doggedly dogs ended up needing to be euthanized under mysterious circumstances (Venus and Brisco).

Barbara continues to solicit public donations to pull more dogs to adopt out while 60+ rot behind closed doors.

Camille is one of MANY.

I guess it's easier for people to pretend it's not happening and continue to support her than to actually stand up for dogs.

The "rescue" community and "animal lovers" everywhere continue to hide their heads in the sand and stay comfortable instead of standing up for the animals they claim to care about.

It's very telling.

Dude are you actually mad about that?

It makes me uncomfortable

But only because I've had the dogs for a really long time and it's embarrassing

Bc now both are in boarding the shoulda been in homes

Especially camille

I've had her since 2015

Sorry I didn't mean to be a dick

You have a lot going on dude

And it's not easy to adopt out dogs in Texas

Yeah but it's still not right

Yeah but it's still not right

To have Camille for 5 years

She's not adoptable

I should euthanize her

But she's happy

Why isn't she adoptable?
Behavior?

I don't blame you for making any decision you did for her - she's been healthy, happy, warm, parasite free, and loved for 5 years there's nothing wrong with that

Yeah. She shits indoors constantly
