Message From the DCHSAO Chair

Ending Strong. Beginning Stronger.

As we close out 2025, our organization stands at a powerful turning point. This year reminded us of the strength that lives within the Trailblazer legacy — the strength to endure, rebuild, and rise with purpose.

As we prepare for our 100 Years on Tuxedo celebration, we honor every alum who passed through the halls of Detroit Central High School.

Your stories, your service, and your unwavering spirit continue to guide us forward.

The Centennial is not just a milestone.
It is a responsibility — and a promise.

A promise to preserve our history, uplift our present, and inspire the generations who will come after us.

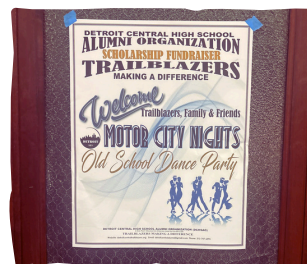

Together, we end this year strong.
Together, we begin the next one even stronger.

In unity and pride,
Tina Nelson
