Parents Comments:

'All the staff are very supportive and know each child individually. My child loves coming to school and it feels like a lovely family environment.'

'Amazing school. I can't praise it enough.'

'Fantastic communication with parents. Open and reflective approach which is welcomed from us especially having a child with SEN.'

'Such a perfect school. We are so pleased how supportive the school have been since our child started. We have seen a huge change in our child, for the positive. His behaviour and attitude towards school work is now positive.'

'Thank you to all the staff at Sale and Davys for doing so much for our children. We are fortunate to have you.'

'Our child is really enjoying being at the school and has settled in which is a credit to the teachers and children. Thank you.'

'Very happy with the school and the teachers. Can we have a football team.'

'We're very happy with how our child is developing at this school and the skills he has learnt.'

'My child has only just started so hard to answer some of the above. However, we are happy with what we've seen so far and our child seems to really like it here. Thank you'.
