Lunchtime Playworker

Every Friday 11:55am – 1:15pm

We are looking for an enthusiastic, creative and engaging person to join our school as a Playworker. Working every Friday from 11:55am to 1:15pm, with the potential for additional days to be available in the future if interested.

We are particularly interested in hearing from people who have talents, hobbies, skills or interests that they would enjoy sharing with children. This could include:

- Arts and crafts
- Sports and outdoor games
- Music and dance
- Drama and performance
- Nature based activities
- Construction and making activities
- Science and technology
- Any other hobby or talent that could inspire and engage our pupils

You don't need to be a professional in any particular area, enthusiasm, creativity and a genuine interest in helping children have an enjoyable lunchtime are what matter most.

A DBS will be required for this role. If you are interested in finding out more or would like to apply, please contact the school office for further information.
