

The Flood

(Gen 7)

[Joe Vermeulen]

So God Speaks...

1. Righteous Noah – it is time
Board the ark so – you'll survive
Final moments – now have come
Seven days are – counting down

I have measured – set aside
40 days – and 40 nights
From the heavens – rain will pour
Till all breathing creatures are no more

2. Noah listened – called his sons
Bring your mother – bring your wives
Let us shelter – on the ark
Escape the waters – of the flood

Then they marvel – a miracle
God now brings – the chosen animals
Two by two they come – male and female
According to their kind; as God provides

Instrumental:

3. Fear and trembling – shock and awe
As the Lord now – shuts the door
A growing rumble – from on high
Terror forming – in the sky

Then the shaking – a mighty roar
From the deep – waters bursting forth
Flood gates open – from the heavens
Rain keeps pouring down and floods the ground

Bridge:

Raining and raining
waters come pouring
40 days and nights
The flood keeps on coming

Higher and higher
The ark keeps on rising
(Ooh) a deluge of rain
Flooding the whole earth

4. Still increasing – more and more
Waters rising – ov’r the earth
Ev’ry dry land – under water
Ev’ry mountain – now submerged

So, did perish – ev’ry creature
Ev’ry one who breathed the breath of life
No more people – beast of birds
Only in the ark – did they survive

Instrumental:
