DIFFERENTIATORS

- Our small size gives us a level of agility and flexibility that a larger entity might not have because of the innate bureaucracy involved with larger firms
- Our unit cost to operate and overhead costs are significantly less and therefore we can allow our teaming partners to become more competitive in their deliverables to Government Agencies on Contracts as demonstrated on project executed for the City of Pompano Beach, FL
- Allow greater efficiencies on fulfilling contract schedules and more agile in mitigating unforeseen challenges in the project cycle seamlessly
- Facilitate elevated response time as part of the contract / project team
- You have a teaming partner that understands the complexities and challenges delivering on Agency mission and imperatives on schedule and with budget
- Our strength / expertise and experience in effective and timely communication understanding the importance building and sustaining relationships for all stakeholders.
- Our commitment and reliability to get the job done and getting right the first time
- Our track record of success and excellence in project delivery in the local government and institutional space. We are an easy fit to your team
