Booking Details

Booking

A non-refundable 50% deposit of the total payment secures the weekend of your choice. Remaining payment is due by two weeks before the time of your event. You are responsible for cleaning up after your event and will be billed an additional $200/hour for any extra clean up time incurred by staff. Payment for a weeknight rental is required in full to secure the date.

Insurance

For any private event or an event serving food or alcohol, a certificate of insurance that names Archibald Hall as additionally insured and demonstrates that you have general liability insurance totaling a minimum of $300,000 must be provided. This is also known as event insurance and can be repurchased through a traditional insurance company or through www.TheEventHelper.com

Due to the Burlington noise ordinance, all amplified noise must end at 10pm and the last call for the bar must be at 10:30pm. All guests must leave the building by 11pm and only vendors or hosts may remain.
