

Uwagie-Ero, Odu

Uwagie-Ero Odu is an Economist, Banker, Researcher and Project Management Practitioner. He is an alumnus of the University of Benin, Benin-City, Nigeria, Manchester Metropolitan University Business School, Manchester, United Kingdom, and The University of Salford, Salford, United Kingdom.

Odu's experiences span national and international workspaces. They range from Banking, Public service, Information Technology, Control and Compliance, Safeguarding of Children and Families, Youth Offending and Decriminalization, Project Management, Computer Audit and Finance. Odu is a Business and Project management consultant and a startup enthusiast. He renders pro bono services to startups and has been instrumental in the forming and development of many startups. Odu is a Social Welfare and Human right advocate.

His research interests cover virtual project management, sustainability, Prevention of violence in families, family empowerment, human rights and advocacy. Odu currently promotes the formation of startup in Africa to address the unique African multifaceted problems and participates in research undertaken to advance humanitarian courses.

Odu is a Fellow of The Royal Society of Arts (FRSA) in the United Kingdom and has been member of the British Computer Society (MBCS) and a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) of the Association Certified Fraud Examiner amongst other professional bodies he belongs to. Odu is a Trustee of O³ Foundation and a Director in the Nigerian Professionals and Diaspora Collaboration for Tropical Sustainability.