Prelude - Gathering as a Community of Faith Marni Wiggins

Welcome (Announcements)

Greeting One Another in the Spirit of Love

Opening Praise Song “One Thing Remains” Maranatha!

Prayer

Call to Worship

L: Come, all who are weary and searching.

C: Come, all who carry stories that are still being healed.

L: This is a place of grace, not judgment; of truth, not fear.

C: Here, God meets us with compassion and leads us toward love that restores.

ALL: Let us worship the One who sees us fully and calls us gently into healing.

Offertory Prayer (Read in Unison)

Generous God, all that we have and all that we are come from your loving hand. As we offer these gifts, receive not only what we give, but our gratitude, our trust, and our desire to be shaped by your grace. Use these offerings to bring hope where it is needed, healing where there is hurt, and love where there is longing, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Offertory (The offering plates will be passed while music is played)

Postlude

Marni Wiggins

We exist to reflect the love of Jesus so that others may experience God’s love as we grow together in faith, love and service

Grace for the Heavy Road

When the mountain rises higher than our strength can climb, And we find ourselves authors of chapters we never meant to pen, Let this truth fall like a gentle rain upon your weary spirit: In the ache of the unchosen and the weight of the unknown, You are not a solitary traveler, and you are not alone. For the love of Christ is the breath in your lungs and the light on your path, A steady hand that holds you when your own strength fails, Folding your unfinished story into His eternal song of grace.
