Call to Worship

L: Come into this space, all who are carrying heavy burdens, all who feel the weight of a long week.

C: We come, weary but hopeful, seeking rest.

L: Life may stretch us to our absolute limits. We may feel bowed down by grief, worry, or fatigue.

C: We are bent, but by God’s grace, we are not broken.

L: Because the One who made us is the One who sustains us. God does not promise a life without storms, but He promises to carry us through them.

C: Praise be to God, our shelter, our strength, and our deliverer.
Let us worship together! Amen!

Offertory Prayer (Read in Unison)

Lord God, You are our refuge and our strength, an ever present help in times of trouble. We acknowledge today that while life may bend us, Your grace ensures we are never broken. Please accept these gifts as a token of our gratitude. We ask that You bless and multiply them, so that they may be used to carry Your message of hope, and deliverance to our community and beyond. We pray this in the name Jesus. Amen.

Postlude Marni Wiggins

We exist to reflect the love of Jesus so that others may experience God’s love as we grow together in faith, love and service

Bent But Not Broken

Some of us arrive today carrying our unresolved yesterdays.
We have been hit by the fierce winds of this world and bent low, so low that we can no longer stand up by ourselves.
The miracle is this: though we are pressed to our absolute limits, we are not crushed. Though the storms have bent our spirits, by the scandalous grace of God, we do not break.
Our God is not a stranger to our brokenness.
He is the One who meets us in the bending.
So, bring your bent but not broken lives to Christ's table, where new life and growth await.
Let us taste the bread and the wine, and claim new life. For we are loved by the One who will never let us go.
