Prayer

Call to Worship

L: We stand in the presence of the God who sees not our past, but our potential.

C: We turn our eyes from the shadows of old labels and fix them on the light of God's promise!

L: Jesus calls us by name! He steps into the story of the Bent Woman and proclaims her Daughter of Abraham! He calls the schemer Israel, the prevailing wrestler!

C: We celebrate that our identity is not found in our mistakes,
but in the Name of our Redeemer!

L: Hear this: The Lord has called you with an everlasting love! He is making all things new, replacing the label of Deficit with the destiny of Destiny!

C: We stand in the truth: We are Loved, Forgiven, and Worthy!
This is our name in Christ! Amen!

Still God's Beloved

Even when the promise feels laughable,
Even when the years stretch long and the womb is silent,
Even when the spine is bent from carrying too much for too long—

God sees. God speaks. God stays.

This is the God who renames us with hope,
who interrupts our shame with healing,
who calls us worthy before we feel it.

So if you've been waiting, if you've been aching, if you've been told you're too much or not enough—
take heart.

The story isn't over. The promise still stands.
And you, beloved, are being made new.
