FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: SEPTEMBER 16, 2021

TIME: 3:15 PM

Lassen County Behavioral Health Services in Herlong/Doyle, Westwood, and Big Valley areas

The Lassen County Behavioral Health Department (LCBH) is in the process of transitioning the administration of the behavioral health services from the local Family Resource Centers to the LCBH.

LCBH wants to assure county residents that the following behavioral health services will continue to be offered to all residents of Lassen County, including:

- Community Outreach and Engagement
- Prevention and Early Intervention including peer support and suicide prevention
- Youth Friday Night Live/Club Live programs
- Wellness Groups
- Case Management
- Therapy and Medication Support
- Crisis Services

LCBH services does not include, nor has it ever included food distribution services. The food distribution programs are administered through food banks and will continue.

LCBH welcomes community members to contact us directly regarding any further questions regarding the continuance of services in your community. You may reach us directly at (530) 251-8108 from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm.

More information will be released as it becomes available.
