The Midwest Grand Slam of Ultrarunning Award

The Midwest Grand Slam of Ultrarunning award is recognition for those who complete four or five of the Midwest's premier 100 mile trail races. The "Slam" consists of officially finishing the Kettle Moraine 100 Mile Endurance Run, the Mohican Trail 100 Mile Run, the Burning River 100 Mile Endurance Run, and the Hallucination 100 Mile Run all in the same calendar year. Runners may also choose to add the Indiana Trail 100 Mile Run to the other four Midwest Grand Slam of Ultrarunning events and be designated "Super Slammers" for completing all five 100 mile trail races in the same year. For 2020 only, due to the late date of the Kettle Moraine 100, runners not participating in the Super Slam may select any four of the five races. 2020 will be the ninth year of the Midwest Grand Slam of Ultrarunning award. The award is a beautifully sculpted natural stone trophy with engravings signifying the runner's accomplishment. Midwest Grand Slam of Ultrarunning awards are presented at the conclusion of the Hallucination 100 and Indiana Trail 100 (Super Slammers).
