Meet Trisha

I'm a small-town girl at heart, raised in Half Moon Bay and Oakhurst, California. After spending 28 years in Las Vegas, we packed up in 2021 and landed in rural Minnesota, and I've never been happier.

I've spent over 30 years in the corporate grind. These days, I'm learning to slow down, embrace calm, and channel my (slightly obsessive) tendencies into something cozy...which is how finger knitting became my new favorite form of therapy.

Every piece is made with intention, care, and calm. It's how I decompress after long days, quiet my mind, and create something meaningful for someone else. I call them 'perfectly imperfect', just like all of us.

Cozy and Calm is more than a hobby—it's my way of giving comfort, one blanket at a time.

My family is the reason behind everything I do—work, play, and everything in between. I've been married for over 30 years, we have two amazing adult kids, and there's always a doggie fur baby nearby keeping us company!
