

Week commencing 15 September 2019

Funeral arrangements

The remains of Jim Dillon will be brought to the church on Monday evening at 6.30pm before his Requiem Mass on Tuesday at 10.00am. Please keep Jim and his family and friends in your prayers.

Feast of St. Maurice

On Friday 20 September the Archbishop will celebrate Mass at 9.45am in St. Maurice's High School. As school chaplain, Fr. John will also be there and so there will be no parish Mass that morning.

40 Hours' Adoration

Adoration begins after 12.00pm Mass on Sunday until 6.00pm. On Monday and Tuesday exposition will commence after 10.00am Mass. To accommodate the funeral arrangements of Jim Dillon, there will be no Holy Hour on Monday and exposition will close with a short service at 6.00pm. On Tuesday the period of adoration will close with Mass at 7.00pm.

Relics of St. Thérèse of Lisieux

The relics have now arrived in Scotland and will tour every Diocese in the country. They will be in Glasgow from Monday 16 to Thursday 19 September. Full details and the itinerary for each Diocese may be found at www.littleflowerinScotland.co.uk

MacMillan Cancer Support

There will be a light lunch in the hall on Tuesday 17 September at 12.00pm in aid of the charity. All welcome.

Parish Council

There will be a meeting of the Council on Monday 23 September in the house at 7.00pm.

Baptismal Talks

If you are planning to have your child baptised would you please come along to the talk arranged for Monday 7 October at 7.30pm in the hall. This talk will help you prepare for your child's baptism and will be an opportunity to re-engage with this special Sacrament of the Church which opens up for us the Sacramental Life of the Church.
