About Us

Manta World Sport has been producing superior racquet sports equipment since 1972. Originally a division of Yonex Canada, Manta continues to be an industry leader in production and design, proof of an enduring commitment to quality in both paddle and racquet design and manufacturing throughout the world.

In 2011 Manta began the production of pickleball paddles and joined the “Fastest growing sport in North America”. Manta’s current lineup of paddles can accommodate the beginner through to the professional level of players. Our research and development team is constantly improving designs, performance and quality that allow Manta to continue to be a leader in paddle technology.

Manta products are available in 17 countries. Manta sponsors players, events and organizations around the world in an effort to promote and grow the games of pickleball and squash. Visit us at www.mantasport.com to view all our exciting products.

Why choose Manta?

Manta World Sport is a Canadian wholesale manufacturer that distributes product worldwide. Our distribution network depends on our retailers, representatives and sponsored members of the Manta Pro Team. All our paddles are USAPA and PCO approved for sanctioned events and tournaments.
