SAINT OF THE WEEK

ST. HYACINTH

St. Hyacinth, the glorious apostle of Poland and Russia, was born of noble parents in Poland, about the year 1185. His early education was entrusted to the care of his uncle, a pious priest who later became Bishop of Krakow. Hyacinth manifested so much learning and piety that he was sent to complete his studies at the best universities in Europe.

In 1220 he visited Rome, and while there met St. Dominic. He became one of the first members of the newly-founded Dominican Order. Because of his spirit of prayer and his zeal for the salvation of souls, he was sent to preach and establish the Dominican Order in his native land, Poland. He journeyed also to Austria, Bohemia, and the shores of the Black Sea, and eventually on to China, Sweden, and Norway. Because of his evangelizing, multitudes were converted, and

"Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the

churches and convents were built. He worked numerous miracles, and at Krakow raised a dead youth to life.

He inherited from St. Dominic a child-like and tender devotion to the Mother of God. To her he attributed his success, and to her aid he looked for his salvation. When Hyacinth was at Kiev, the fierce Tartars sacked the town, but it was only as he finished Mass that he heard of the danger. Without waiting to unvest, he took the ciborium in his hands, and was fleeing the church. It is recorded that as he passed by an image of Mary he heard a voice say, "Hyacinth, my son, why dost thou leave me behind? Take me with thee and leave me not to mine enemies." Although the statue was heavy alabaster, when Hyacinth took it in his arms, it was light as a reed. With the Blessed Sacrament and the image of Mary he came to the river Dnieper, and walked over the surface of the waters.

Worn out by his constant labors and vast journeys, Hyacinth spent the last few months of his life in a convent he had founded at Cracow. There on the Feast of St. Dominic, 1257, he fell sick with a fever that was to terminate his earthly life. On the eve of the feast of the Assumption, he was warned of his coming death. In spite of his condition, he celebrated Mass on the feast day, as a dying man. He was anointed at the altar, and died the same day in 1257.

He was canonized in 1594 by Pope Clement VIII. The feast day of St. Hyacinth is celebrated on Aug. 17.

WEDDING BANNs

The marriage of Sydney Kudela and Daniel Boylson (both of this parish) will take place on September 5, 2026 (first asking).

The purpose of banns is to enable anyone to raise any canonical or civil legal impediments to the marriage, so as to prevent invalid marriages.

COFFEE HOUR DONATIONS

Each month, three of the four Sunday Coffee Hours are provided by either St. Anthony of Buffalo (SAB) or Una Voce Buffalo (UVB). Please help each Sunday by leaving a monetary donation for SAB/UVB.

The generosity of our community will further the success of coffee hours and ensure there is food enough for everyone.

Thank you for your support!

A plenary indulgence is granted to those who make a pilgrimage to a place of worship dedicated to St. Francis, participate in Mass and Eucharistic Communion, receive the Sacrament of reconciliation, and pray for the Pope.

PAPAL INTENTION

Papal intention for August: for evangelization in the city...

Let us pray that in large cities often marked by anonymity and loneliness we find new ways to proclaim the Gospel, discovering creative paths to build community.
