HISTORY OF THE CHURCH

MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

According to the Traditional Catholic Calendar of 1962 and prior, July 1st is the Feast of the Most Precious Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ. This feast was instituted for the Universal Church in 1849 by Pope Pius IX and was raised to the rank of a double of the first class by Pope Pius XI on the occasion of the nineteenth centenary of our Savior's death in 1933.

This Feast is worth honoring and considering after having completed the month of June, which is dedicated to the honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Devotion to the Precious Blood of our Lord stretches back long before the establishment of this July 1st feast day.

“We pray You, Lord,
help your people whom
You have redeemed
with Your Precious Blood.”

Devotion to the Precious Blood is connected to devotion to the Passion and Death of Our Lord since through the shedding of His Blood, mankind was redeemed. Consequently, one can say the Church has always honored the Blood of Jesus Christ. Romans 5:9 states, “we are justified by His blood”, and Hebrews 13:12 states, “and so Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people by His blood, suffered outside the gate.” 1 John 1:7 also writes of the Precious Blood: “...and the blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanses us from all sin.” We would do well to meditate on the seven times Christ shed His Precious Blood for our salvation.

Closer to our modern era, devotion to the Precious Blood has been greatly encouraged by St. Gaspar Buffalo, founder of the Congregation of the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ. Pope Pius IX was exiled from Rome in 1849. A companion of Pope Pius IX was Don Giovanni Merlini, the third general of that Congregation. Don Giovanni Merlini suggested to Pope Pius IX that he make a vow to give the Feast of the Precious Blood to the entire church if he should regain the papal territory. The Feast however had been celebrated beforehand by the Fathers of the Most Precious Blood on the Friday after the Fourth Sunday of Lent.

We owe the institution of a special feast in honor of the Precious Blood to Pope Pius IX. It was Pope St. Pius X who transferred the feast from the first Sunday of July to July 1st. And it was Pope Pius XI, who raised the rank of the feast day, in commemoration of the 19th centennial of the mystery of the Redemption.

PRAYER FOR UNITY

On Wed., July 1 let us pray for unity within the body of Christ...

Almighty and merciful God, who willed to gather the scattered nations into one people through your Son: look with compassion upon your fractured Church. Forgive our human pride, historical hurts, and doctrinal divisions. Pour out your Holy Spirit to mend the schisms that separate your children. Grant that all who confess the name of Christ may put aside their divisions, recognize one another as brothers and sisters, and become one in truth and charity, so that the world may believe and know your love. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
