MONTHLY DEVOTIONAL
THE HOLY ROSARY

"The Rosary", says the Roman Breviary, "is a certain form of prayer wherein we say fifteen decades or tens of Hail Marys with an Our Father between each ten, while at each of these fifteen decades we recall successively in pious meditation one of the mysteries of our Redemption." The same lesson for the Feast of the Holy Rosary informs us that when the Albigensian heresy was devastating the country of Toulouse, St. Dominic earnestly besought the help of Our Lady and was instructed by her, so tradition asserts, to preach the Rosary among the people as an antidote to heresy and sin. From that time forward this manner of prayer was "most wonderfully published abroad and developed [promulgari augerique coepit] by St. Dominic whom different Supreme Pontiffs have in various past ages of their apostolic letters declared to be the institutor and author of the same devotion." That many popes have so spoken is undoubtedly true, and amongst the rest we have a series of encyclicals, beginning in 1883, issued by Pope Leo XIII, which, while commending this devotion to the faithful in the most earnest terms, assumes the institution of the Rosary by St. Dominic to be a fact historically established.

Besides the indulgences attached to the Rosary, Our Lady revealed to St. Dominic and Blessed Alan de la Roche additional benefits for those who devoutly pray the Rosary.

- 1. Those who faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary shall receive signal graces.*
- 2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.*
- 3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell. It will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.*
- 4. The recitation of the Rosary will cause virtue and good works to flourish. It will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God. It will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire of eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.*
- 5. The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary shall not perish.*
- 6. Those who recite my Rosary devoutly, applying themselves to the consideration of its sacred mysteries, shall never be conquered by misfortune. In His justice, God will not chastise them; nor shall they perish by an unprovided death, i.e., be unprepared for heaven. Sinners shall convert. The just shall persevere in grace and become worthy of eternal life.*
- 7. Those who have a true devotion to the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.*
- 8. Those who faithfully recite the Rosary shall have, during their life and at their death, the light of God and the plenitude of His graces. At the moment of death, they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.*
- 9. I shall deliver from purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.*
- 10. The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in heaven.*
- 11. By the recitation of the Rosary you shall obtain all that you ask of me.*
- 12. Those who propagate the holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.*
- 13. I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of their death.*
- 14. All who recite the Rosary are my beloved children and the brothers and sisters of my only Son, Jesus Christ.*
- 15. Devotion for my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.*
