SAINT OF THE WEEK

SS. SIMON & JUDE

Ss. Simon and Jude are two of Jesus' Twelve Apostles.

St. Simon is referred to in Scripture by Matthew and Mark as the "Cananaean" and by Luke as "the Zealot." Both titles mean the same, zealous for the Jewish Law, and distinguish him from the Simon whom the Lord renamed Peter, or Rock. It is unclear whether he belonged to the political party of that day, which was known as the Zealots, or was simply known for his religious zeal.

As a zealot, Simon would have been very committed to his Jewish identity and would have been firmly opposed to Roman oppression and taxation. He would have had an immediate aversion to Matthew, who previously served the Romans by collecting taxes for them from the Jews. The fact that Jesus did not choose like-minded Apostles shows His inclusion of all people. Jesus did not have a favorite type of person. He was not bound by cultural ties, ideologies, or social classes. St. Jude is one of two Apostles with this name. The other, usually called Judas, is the infamous Judas Iscariot, known for his betrayal of Jesus. Here we refer to Jude Thaddeus, the saint increasingly popular as the patron of hopeless causes. He is also the author of the New Testament book the Epistle of Jude.

"Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words."

Simon and Jude are often mentioned together because they were companions in their mission of evangelization. They traveled together to preach the Eternal Word, Jesus Christ, to the nations and are believed to have been martyred together on one of these missions, which led them to be honored together on the same feast day.

Regarding their deaths, nothing is known other than unreliable apocryphal sources, such as the Passion of Simon and Jude, and other fourth-century and later sources. One of the most common traditions is that Simon and Jude traveled to Persia to preach the Gospel and were both killed there in the year 65. Simon is traditionally believed to have been sawed in half, and Jude is traditionally believed to have been beaten with a club. They often appear in sacred art holding the instruments of their deaths. Other traditions state they ministered in Armenia, Beirut, Lebanon, Roman Britain, Egypt, and/or Samaria and died by arrows, crucifixion, and even a peaceful death.

ALL SAINTS & ALL SOULS

All Saints Day falls on Saturday, November 1, this year and because it falls on a Saturday the obligation to attend Mass is abrogated (USCCB, Complementary Norms, CIC, canon 1246, §2). However, we encourage all to attend this beautiful celebration of all our Saints!

All Souls falls on a Sunday this year, in the new calendar, which supersedes the normal Sunday. However, in the old calendar, All Souls would be transferred to the following Monday. So, in the Traditional Latin Mass, All Souls will be on Monday, November 3, at the regular 6 pm Mass time.

ADVENT MISSION

The Advent Mission is set for Gaudete Sunday, December 14 through Tuesday, December 16.

We will start with our annual Gaudete Party, then Fr. Augustine will be give this year's Mission talk.

DONATE ❤️

DONATE TO THE SPN HOUSE

YOU CAN HELP US OUT DIRECTLY

The members of the St. Philip Neri House do not receive direct financial support from the Diocese of Buffalo. We rely on the salaries given for our work in the diocese and the generosity of monthly donors to help pay for seminary and supplemental living costs. Sadly, our house in Texas is having trouble selling and we have approximately $2.5k a month that has to go to that until it sells (mortgage and upkeep). With the move, we lost the majority of our Tyler monthly donors, which covered this expense, along with seminary costs, and miscellaneous living expenses. Please prayerfully consider becoming a monthly donor. Scan the QR code or go to www.spnhouse.org.
