Chris Henningsen | RTCC Supervisor

Chris Henningsen started his career with Scottsdale Police Department in 1998 in a volunteer capacity and became a full-time employee in 2005. Chris has had the opportunity to work in several assignments in all three bureaus (Uniformed Services, Investigative Services and Operational Services) of his police department. Today he is the supervisor of the Real Time Crime Center (RTCC).

Chris is a founding member of the National Real Time Crime Center Association (NRTCCA), an organization to help agencies follow best practices, protect privacy, civil rights and civil liberties in their centers. This association has four focus areas to include: Development, Innovation, Collaboration and Education (DICE).

Webinar starts at 10:00 AM MDT
