

Being apart of the AISC for many years now, we have known that requirements are changing and updating frequently. It can feel very frustrating and difficult to manage and interpret. This may be the case if you haven't worked with Lee Pielaet. Lee has the utmost knowledge and has a well-oiled process for tackling your company's AISC requirements. He truly dedicates his time with you to cover every aspect and go the extra mile to educate you on understanding every aspect as well. I would 10/10 recommend Lee. You cannot go wrong hiring him to work with your company. Thanks so much, Lee for your continued support and work with our company!
