Life-Study of John - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with Message 27 of the Life-study of John, entitled Life's Washing in Love to Maintain Fellowship. In this message, we come to John 13, a chapter concerning the spiritual significance of foot-washing.

Here is an excerpt from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

“Verse 3 indicates the reason why the Lord washed the disciples' feet. It was because He knew “that the Father had given all into His hands and that He had come forth from God and was going to God.” At that time He realized three things: (1) that the Father had given all into His hands; (2) that He had come forth from God; and (3) that He was going to God. Because of these three things, He washed the feet of His disciples. The “all” that the Father had given Him was mainly the disciples; His coming forth from God had brought God into His disciples; and in His going to God, He was to leave these disciples. The Father had given the disciples, and the Lord had brought God into them, but now He was going to leave them. By His coming forth from God and His bringing God into them, a relationship between the disciples and God in Him came into existence. Now He was going to leave them. After He had left them, how could this relationship between the disciples and God be maintained? It is to be maintained by the foot-washing. Foot-washing is the washing away from the feet all the dirt that frustrates the fellowship of the relationship between God and man. In doing it, the Lord showed His disciples the way for them to maintain their relationship with God in Him.

This kind of understanding can be confirmed in a negative sense by verse 2, which says that at that time the devil had “already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, that he should betray Him.” The aim of the devil's evildoing is to keep people away from the relationship with God. But what the Lord did in washing the disciples' feet was to keep His disciples in the relationship with God in Him. While the devil was working to keep people away from this relationship with God, the Lord did the work of foot-washing as a way to keep His disciples in the relationship with God in Him.”
