Life-Study of Romans - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will begin this week's truth pursuit with message 1 of the Life-Study of Romans titled: "A Foreword." This message begins our life pursuit in the book of Romans and gives us an overview of the entire Bible, the position of Romans in this view, and an outline of the book of Romans.

Here is an excerpt from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

"Immediately after the record of God's creation, we find the story of a marriage (Gen. 2:21-25). In this marriage Adam is the type of Christ as the husband, and Eve is the type of the church as the wife. In Ephesians 5 we see the couple typified by Adam and Eve—Christ and the church. The type of Adam and Eve reveals that the persons of this universal couple must be of the same source. God created one person, Adam, and out from this person a wife came. Eve was not created separately by God; she came out of Adam. Eve was made out of a rib, a piece of bone, that came from Adam, indicating that both Adam and Eve proceeded out of the same source. In this universal couple the wife must come out of the husband. Likewise, the church must come out of Christ. The two persons of this couple must be of the same source. They also must be of one nature. Furthermore, they must share one common life. Adam's nature and life were also Eve's. Eve had the same nature and life as Adam. The two persons of this couple were of one source, of one nature, and had the same one life. Without doubt, they also had one living. They lived together. Eve lived by Adam and with Adam, and Adam lived by Eve and with Eve. This couple is the secret of the universe. The secret of the whole universe is that God and His chosen ones are to be one couple. Hallelujah! We, God's chosen ones, and God are of one source, of one nature, and have one life. Now we also need to have one living. We are not living by ourselves or for ourselves; we are living with God and for God, and God is living with us and for us. Hallelujah!" (Witness Lee, Life-study of Romans, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 1)

Verses for pray-reading: Gen. 2:22-23; Isa. 54:5; Hosea 2:19; S.S. 1:2-3, 6:4; Eph. 5: 25-32; Rev. 21:2.

Study Questions:

1. What is the deep thought of the Bible? According to your current understanding, what is the process that God has taken to become the Bridegroom according to this deep thought? What process does the church undertake to become the New Jerusalem, the Bride? What does the picture of Adam and Eve reveal concerning the relationship that God and His people have with one another? What is revealed in the Old Testament in general and specifically in the Song of Songs concerning this relationship?
2. What is the New Testament revelation of this romance and what is the kernel of the divine revelation in the Word of God?
3. How does the Old Testament convey both persons of this romance? What is the New Testament revelation of these two persons and what specifically does Romans reveal in full definition?
4. What are the different sections in the book of Romans? Describe the life-process of sanctification, the life practice of transformation and glorification as the purpose of salvation.
5. What are the three major structures of the book of Romans and how are they related? What does salvation include and how is it different from redemption?
