Life-Study of John - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with Message 10 of the Life-study of John - "The Increase of Christ And The Immeasurable Christ". This life-study message covers John 3:22-36.

Here is an excerpt from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

"...“He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices with joy because of the bridegroom's voice. This joy of mine therefore is made full. He must increase, but I must decrease” (vv. 29-30). Most Christians, especially most of the Christian teachers, misinterpret verse 30. What does it mean for Christ to increase and for you to decrease? It means that you must withdraw from the scene and from having the following and allow Christ to be the only figure on the scene and to have all the following. All the following should go to Christ; none of it should go to John the Baptist or to anyone else...

John wrote his gospel under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. By his words we can see that all the regenerated followers of Christ are His increase. The increase in verse 30 is the bride in verse 29, and the bride there is a living composition of all the regenerated people. This means that in this chapter on regeneration, regeneration is not only to bring the divine life into the believers and annul the satanic nature in their flesh, but also to make them the corporate bride for Christ's increase.” (Witness Lee, Life-study of John, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 10)

Key Verses for pray-reading: John 3:29-30, 34-36

Study Questions:

1. What is the purpose of regeneration? What is the increase of Christ?
2. What is the meaning behind the phrase, “He must increase, and I must decrease”?
3. Share on the spiritual significance of verses 3:31-36. The immeasurable Christ Who was coming from above and incarnated, speaks the words of God and gives the Spirit not by measure, to regenerate the believers to be His bride for His increase.
