Life-Study of John - Study Guide

Brothers and Sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit from the Life Study of John, Message 14. "THE NEED OF THE IMPOTENT—LIFE'S ENLIVENING". John 5:1-47. This case is an allegory, and every aspect of it must be allegorized.

Here is an excerpt from this message with verses and questions for your study:

"Many religious people worship God and try their best to please Him, to behave themselves, and to make themselves perfect. Yet, it is all without Christ. This kind of religion is always in opposition to Christ and to the genuine followers of Christ in life. This opposition is not revealed in John 3 or 4; we find it in John 5. In the case of the impotent man, the opposition from religion is completely exposed. This chapter unveils the inadequacy of the typical religion and its opposition to Christ. In this chapter, the main thing on the negative side that we must see is the inadequacy, the vanity, of this religion and the opposition of this religion to Christ. Praise the Lord that on the positive side this chapter shows us the adequacy, the sufficiency, of Christ, the Son of God, as life to enliven people. Christ as life is sufficient to enliven us.

In the eyes of the Lord, all of the people living on earth are dead in their spirit. The phrase, "An hour is coming and now is," refers to the very time when the Lord spoke these words...For twenty centuries, from the time that the Lord spoke these words until the present, thousands and thousands of people have heard the living voice of the Son of God and have been enlivened with life. We also have heard the living word of the Lord and have been made alive. We also were the impotent persons under the five porches, for we were blind, lame, and withered. In short, we were dead. Then the Lord came to visit us, and we heard the living word of the gospel that enlivened us and made us alive. We have truly passed out of death and have entered into life." (Witness Lee, Life-study of John, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA msg 14)

Key verses for pray-reading: John 5:5-9, 17, 21, 24-26

Questions:

1. What is the central point of chapter five?
2. Define religion according to John chapter five.
3. How are we like impotent people under the law? What is the difference between the law keeping of religion and the enlivening of Christ?
4. Explain the two kinds of resurrection.
