Life-Study of Romans - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with message 11 of the Life-Study of Romans titled: "Identification with Christ". This Life-Study message covers Rom 6:1-23. Here is an excerpt from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

"Romans 5:12 marks a major turn…this turn is a turn from sins to sin, from position to disposition, and from justification to sanctification, or we may say from salvation to life. After making such a turn, Paul begins to deal with our person instead of our behavior. In the first four and a half chapters of Romans Paul was concerned with man's deeds, not with man himself, and the sinful acts of fallen man were covered comprehensively…

Beginning with Romans 5:12, Paul deals with man himself…In no other portion of the Divine Word is man exposed as thoroughly as in Romans 5 through 8. In these four chapters man is acutely diagnosed by Paul…What kind of man is exposed in this section of Romans? He is a man with sin in him, a man under the reign of death and, therefore, a man under God's righteous judgment and condemnation…

If we do not have Romans 5 as a foundation, we can never be clear about Romans 6. It is no longer a question of two situations or two states; it is a question of two persons, two men. The first man is Adam with all the debits, and the second man is Christ with all the credits. To which person do you belong?

In Romans 6:3 Paul says, "Are you ignorant that as many of us as have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death?"…Baptism is an act in which we put the members of Adam into death, thereby transferring them out of Adam and into Christ…We also are growing together with Christ in the likeness of His resurrection (6:4-5). What is the likeness of His resurrection? It is the newness of life…We need a vision to see our co-crucifixion with Christ in Romans 6:6-7, and our co-resurrection with Christ in Romans 6:8-10…we are dead to sin and alive to God…"Knowing this" is actually the seeing of a fact in a spiritual vision.

Once we realize that we are dead to sin and alive to God, and reckon ourselves to be such, we must present our members as weapons of righteousness to fight the battle. Furthermore, we need to present ourselves and our members as slaves to God (6:16, 19, 22)...This affords the opportunity for the divine life within us to do its sanctifying work. Then we learn to reject sin and to cooperate with God. The result of it all is sanctification, which ends with life eternal. Praise the Lord! (Witness Lee, Life-study of Romans, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 11)

Verses for pray-reading: Rom. 6:3-6, 8, 22-23

Study Questions:

1. What are all the debits in the first man Adam? What are all the credits in the second man Christ? To which person do you belong?

2. Since we all were born in Adam, how can we say that we are now in Christ?

3. Reckoning is a matter of believing produced by seeing. How is 'knowing this' in Rom 6:6 related to 'reckon' ourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Rom 6:11?
