Life-Study of John - Study Guide

Brothers and Sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit from the Life Study of John, Message 16. In John 6, Christ comes into the troublesome world as the peace-giving Christ (6:16-21). John 6 not only portrays the hungry world, but also the troubled world. Christ is the feeding Christ to the hungry world and the peace-giving Christ to the troubled world.

Here is an excerpt from this message with verses and questions for your study:

““We live in a troubled world. The world is altogether troublesome. Family life, school life, and every type of occupation—all are troublesome...”

Christ comes into this troublesome world as the peace-giving Christ (6:16-21). John 6 not only portrays the hungry world, but also the troubled world. Christ is the feeding Christ to the hungry world and the peace-giving Christ to the troubled world. The world may trouble everyone, but it cannot trouble Him...

...The stirred-up sea and the strong blowing wind signify the troubles in human life. Under the sea are demons, and in the air are evil spirits. That is why we have trouble. How could we ever expect to have a peaceful day? We are in the wrong place for that...

...Jesus walked on the sea (6:19). This signifies that the Lord can overrule all the troubles of human life. He can walk on the troubling waves of human life, and all the unrest is under His feet. Christ walked on top of all the waves. It seemed that the more waves there were, the more He enjoyed walking upon them. The waves terrified His disciples, but He trod upon them. He seemed to say, “Demons, please cause bigger waves. Then I will have more enjoyment. I can walk on top of your waves.” This is the peace-giving Christ.” (Witness Lee, Life-study of John, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA msg 16)

Key verses for pray-reading: John 6:19-21, 29, 35, 40, 47-48, 51, 53-54, 56-57, 63

Questions:

1. What are the six steps that the Christ took to make Himself available for us to receive? Show how John 6 conveys each of these steps.
2. What is the Divine concept for us in our daily living that is versus our human concept? What is the real work of God?
3. What is the strangest sentence in the entire Bible? What is the most important point in John 6? Accordingly, how do we apply the Lord's bold statement in John 6:57 and how often should we apply it in our experience?
