Life-Study of John - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit from the Life Study of John, Message 23. THE NEED OF THE DEAD—LIFE'S RESURRECTING (1)

The case of raising Lazarus from the dead is certainly a wonderful case. Here we see the case of a man who had died, who had been buried for four days, and who had begun to stink. Nevertheless, he was resurrected. Why do the other three Gospels give us no record of this wonderful case? John is the Gospel on life. Therefore, the Holy Spirit kept this case for John. This proves that the Gospel of John is a book of life.

Here is an excerpt from this message with verses and questions for your study:

"In 11:1-4 we see the dead and his need. Lazarus was not only sick but also dead. Thus, he did not need healing but resurrecting. In the Lord's salvation He does not merely heal the sick; He also gives life to the dead. So He remained two days until the sick one had died. The Lord does not reform people or regulate them; He regenerates people and raises them out of death. Hence, the first of the nine cases is on regeneration and the last is on resurrection, revealing that all of the different aspects of Christ as life to us, as unveiled in the other seven cases, are in the principle of regeneration and resurrection. This last case is the actual changing of death into life." (Witness Lee, Life-study of John, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 23).

Verses for pray-reading: John 11:1-4, 25, 26

Questions:

1. What is the central thought in the Gospel of John on the positive side and the negative side?
2. What, besides the opposition of religion, are the strongest obstacles to life?
3. Opinions belong to the tree of knowledge. How does this frustrate the Lord?
4. How does the Lord deal with our opinion?
