Life-Study of Matthew - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with Message 68 of the Life-study of Matthew, entitled "A Test to All People and The Establishing of The Table". This life-study covers Matt. 26:1-30, which speaks of Christ being a test to all the people-the religionist who hated Him, the disciples who loved Him, the false believer betraying Him, and the establishment of the Lord's table.

Here is an excerpt from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

"Although the religionists hated the Lord Jesus, His disciples loved Him. Two of those who loved Him were Simon the leper and Mary, the woman who poured the oil on His head. A leper signifies a sinner. Simon, as a leper, must have been healed by the Lord. Being grateful to the Lord and loving Him, he spread a feast in his house for the Lord and His disciples in order to enjoy His presence. A saved sinner would always do this. Simon must have known that the Lord was about to be killed. He probably realized that this was the last opportunity for him to express his love to the Lord. Therefore, he grasped the opportunity for a further intimate, loving contact with the Lord.

Verses 7 and 8 say, "A woman came to Him, having an alabaster jar of ointment of great value, and she poured it on His head as He reclined at table. But when the disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, Why this waste?" The disciples considered Mary's loving offering to the Lord a waste. Throughout the past twenty centuries, thousands of precious lives, heart treasures, high positions, and golden futures have been wasted upon the Lord Jesus. To such lovers He is altogether lovely and worthy of their offering. What they have poured upon Him is not a waste, but a fragrant testimony of His sweetness...Many received the revelation of the Lord's death by the Lord's words...Hence, she grasped the opportunity to pour the best she had upon the Lord. To love the Lord with our best requires a revelation concerning Him."
(Witness Lee, Life-study of Matthews, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 68).

Key Verses for pray-reading: Matt. 26:12, 26-27.

Questions/Study Points:

1. What were the three categories of people mentioned in this portion of the word?
2. In establishing His table, what is the significance of the bread? What is the significance of the cup?
3. Why did the Lord begin with the bread and not the cup? Why is the sequence important?
