Life-Study of Romans - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with Message 12 of the Life-study of Romans, entitled: "The Bondage of the Law in our Flesh". In this message we will see how we can say that we are not under the law. How we can be outside of the law and discharged from it, and how we can be freed from the law from Rom. 7:1-6.

Here are some excerpts from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

"In God's creation man's original position was that of a wife. Isaiah 54:5 says that God our Maker is our husband. Thus, according to God's creation, man had the position of a wife. As a wife to God, we must depend upon Him and take Him as our head. This was our original position.

When man fell, he took another position, the self-assuming position of the old man. The fallen man assumed the position of a husband. The man created by God was a wife; the fallen man became a husband

However, God did not intend that the old man keep the law, because the old man cannot keep it. The law was given that the old man might be exposed. People make a great mistake when they think that God gave man the law that he might keep it. On the contrary, God gave the law to man that he might break it and that, by breaking it, he might be completely exposed. If you try to keep the law, you are wrong; if you break the law, you are correct. The law was not given for man to keep; it was given for man to break.

We need to exercise our spirit continually because our regenerated spirit is a source of newness. The Lord, the divine life, and the Holy Spirit are all in our regenerated spirit. Everything in our regenerated spirit is new. Do not remember the law, for with the law there is nothing but oldness. In our regenerated spirit there is nothing but newness.

As regenerated people who have been married to Christ as the new husband, we must bear fruit to God. Whatever we do, are, and have must be God Himself. God overflows from our being to become our fruit to God Himself. We must also serve the Lord in newness of spirit, not in oldness of letter, not in oldness of the law. We have nothing to do with the law any longer. We have been freed from it. Now we are under grace, living with and by our new husband, who is Christ. (Witness Lee, Life-study of Romans, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 12)

Key Verses for pray-reading: Rom. 7:1-6

Questions:

1. Explain what this statement means: "The law is not intended for the wife, but for the fallen husband"?

2. As the wife of Christ, what is the most crucial thing we need to do in our daily life?
