Life-Study of John - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with Message 38 of the Life-study of John, entitled: Life's Prayer (1). In this message we come to the profound prayer uttered by the Lord in John 17.

Here are some excerpts from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

"In this message we come to the profound prayer uttered by the Lord in John 17. This prayer is the completing prayer of the Lord's message given in chapters fourteen, fifteen, and sixteen. If we read John 14 through 17 carefully, we shall realize that these four chapters have a very specific flavor in utterance and composition. This flavor is altogether different from the other chapters in the Bible. Although the whole Bible undoubtedly is God-breathed, these four chapters have a special taste, a special flavor, that no one can imitate. This flavor is not only holy but divine. No human being can utter something that is so divine.

In order to understand the meaning of His prayer, we must remember the central thought of the message given by the Lord in the previous three chapters. The central thought of that message is rich, deep, and profound. The first aspect of this central thought is that the Lord Jesus, the Son of God, was sent by the Father to be among us. Then He was transfigured from the flesh into the Spirit that He might be able to come into us. In other words, He was transfigured into the Holy Spirit, and He comes into us as the Holy Spirit. When the Holy Spirit comes into us, He comes as the Spirit of reality to make the Lord Jesus real to us in every respect. By doing this, the Lord brings us into the Father and brings the Father into us. This is the mingling of divinity with humanity. Included in this mingling is the mutual abode. We become the abode to the Triune God, and the Triune God becomes the abode to us. We can abide in the Triune God, and the Triune God can abide in us. This is the central thought of the profound and glorious message given by the Lord in these three chapters. After giving that message, the Lord offered a closing prayer."

(Witness Lee, Life-study of John, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 38).

Key Verses for pray-reading: John 17:1-5.

Questions:

1. What is the real meaning, the true significance and central thought of His prayer in Ch. 17?
2. What are the 3 stages of the Glorification of the Triune God?
