Life-Study of Romans - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with Message 13 of the Life-study of Romans, entitled "The Bondage of the Law in our Flesh (2)". In this message we come to Romans 7:7-25 which reveals the three laws.

Here is an excerpt from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

"Verse 22 mentions the law of God in which Paul delights according to the inner man. We may label this as law number one. In verse 23 Paul refers to the law of the mind, which we may label law number two. Since this law is a law of the mind and the mind is part of the soul, it means that there is a law in our soul. Verse 23 also mentions what Paul calls "a different law in my members." Since this law is in our members and our members are a part of our flesh, our fallen body, it means that in our flesh is another law. This law, law number three, wars against the law of our minds.

Regarding the body of sin, which is active and powerful with its lust in sinning, we do not need to try to suppress it by a strong will or by any other means. Romans 6:6 tells us that since our man has been crucified with Christ, our "body of sin" has been "made of none effect," meaning that it is now jobless. Since the sinning person, the old man, has been crucified, his body has nothing to do and is unemployed. Regarding the body of death, we do not need to drag it with us any longer. Since we are regenerated, new man and are freed from the law of the old man, we do not need to strive to keep the law, for such striving only causes more death through the fallen body, which is the flesh. As long as we live by the new man with our new husband, the living Christ, we are freed from the law and delivered from the flesh and from the law of sin within it.

After we have been saved, we should make no attempt to fulfill the law of God or to do good in order to please God. If we do, we will certainly experience Romans 7 and become a wretched man. We need to realize that we, as the old man, have been crucified with Christ and that, as the new man, we are freed from the old man's law and have been married to our new husband, the resurrected Christ, that we might bear fruit to God and serve the Lord in newness of spirit." (Witness Lee, Life-study of Romans, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 13)

Key Verses for pray-reading: Romans 7:18, 24-25.

Questions/Study Points:

1. What are the three laws described in Romans 7?

2. What is the difference between the conflicts found in Romans 7 and Galatians 5?
