Life-Study of John - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with Message 12 of the Life-study of John, entitled "The Need of the Immoral-Life's Satisfying (2)". In this message we come to John 4:15-26, this section shows aspects of the way to take in Christ as the living water. As a result of drinking Christ, we become a living testimony with a marvelous harvest.

Here is an excerpt from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

"What do the husbands signify? They signify anything that is other than Christ. Anything outside of Christ may become sinful. The husbands of the Samaritan woman became the history of her whole sinful life. As we have seen, the Lord touched her sinful history in a very wise way... Since the Lord knows everything, He simply touched her conscience by asking her to bring her husband. By this way, the Lord helped her to confess her sins and repent.

Because the Lord's word about her husband touched her conscience, she immediately changed the conversation to the matter of worship. She was quite clever in doing this. Although she was such an immoral woman, she still talked about the worship of God. This proves where religion is. People may discuss religion and still live in immorality. This woman did not confess her sins, but turned the subject from her husbands to that of worshipping God, saying, "Our fathers worshipped in this mountain, and you say that in Jerusalem is the place where men must worship." This change of subject was the subtlety of the Samaritan woman. The woman's problem with the matter of worship, like the question in 8:3-7 and 9:2-3, was a matter of yes or no, which belongs to the tree of knowledge; but the Lord turns her to the spirit (vv.21-24), which belongs to the tree of life (cf. Gen. 2:9-17). When the woman changed the subject from her husband to worship, the Lord Jesus took the opportunity to reveal to her the proper way of receiving the living water." (Witness Lee, Life-study of John, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 12).

Key Verses for pray-reading: John 4:24.

Questions/Study Points:

1. In this section of the word, what are 3 aspects of the way to take the living water?
2. What was the underlying issue of the Samaritan woman that caused her to live a life of immorality?
3. What were the three things that the Lord revealed about Himself to the Samaritan woman?
