Life-Study of John

Message 25
John 12:1-11

Life-Study of John - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with message 25 of the Life-Study of Matthew titled "Life's Issue and Multiplication." This message covers John 12:1-11 regarding the issue of Christ as life. Here is an excerpt from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

"In this message we come to another major subsection in the Gospel of John. We have seen that this Gospel is composed of two sections: the eternal Word incarnated coming to bring God into man (chs. 1—13), and Jesus crucified and Christ resurrected going to prepare the way to bring man into God, and as the Spirit coming to abide and live in the believers for the building of God's habitation (chs. 14—21). We have already covered the first three subsections of the first main section: an introduction to life and building (1:1-51); life's principle and life's purpose (2:1-22); and life meeting the need of man's every case (2:23—11:57). The principle of life is to change death into life (2:1-11), and the purpose of life is to build the house of God (2:12-22). Beginning with chapter three, we see nine cases which illustrate how Christ as life can meet mankind's every need for the fulfillment of God's purpose. This brings us to the end of chapter eleven. After this, in chapter twelve, this Gospel reveals the issue of Christ being life to man: the producing of the church. The church, a house of feasting, is the place where the Lord can rest and obtain His satisfaction. The issue of Christ being life to man is the church. What then is life's multiplication? In chapter twelve we see a small church. It is small in number, in size, and in the growth of life. How can this church be multiplied? It is by the multiplication of life. The issue of life is to produce the church, and the multiplication of life is to increase the church in size, in number, and in the growth of life." (Witness Lee, Life-study of John, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 25)

Verses for pray-reading: John 12:1-3

Study Questions:

1. Recite the contents of the two main sections of the Gospel of John. Recite the first 3 subsections of the first main section. According to John 12, what is the issue of Christ being life to man and what characterizes this issue.
2. What does the gospel of John show us concerning religion vs Christ as life. In other words, what does religion teaches us and what are God's actual desire and intention in this age?
3. John 12 is a miniature of the church life. What does this miniature reveal the church is a product of? Who is the church composed of? What characterizes the inward reality of the church as God's house?
4. What are the three types of functions in the service of the church today that must become the very characteristics of our service?
