Life-Study of John - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with Message 17 of the Life-study of John, entitled "The Need of the Thirsty – Life's Quenching (1)". This message covers John 7:1-52. In this portion we see the Lord brings the flow of water to quench men's thirst.

Here are some excerpts from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

"The feast of Tabernacles occurred at a time when the harvest was over. The people had reaped the corn and the wine. Everything of the harvest had been reaped, and the people were to come together at the feast of Tabernacles and enjoy everything with their families and even with their servants. During the feast of Tabernacles the people do not labor because the work is over, the crop has been reaped, and the corn and wine have been harvested. That was the time to rejoice in their enjoyment—Hence, this feast signifies the completion, achievement, and success of man's career, study, and other matters of human life, including religion, with the joy and enjoyment thereof. Thus, the feast of Tabernacles implies the completion of your job, achievement, and career. But they were still thirsty! The sixth case reveals that their thirst was not quenched even by their success."

"...although you may marry the best wife, have the best children, and possess the best of everything, you will eventually be seventy or eighty years old. That will be your feast of Tabernacles in which you will rejoice in everything and enjoy everything. At that time, you will discover that nothing has been able to quench your thirst."

"Praise the Lord that...only Christ can quench the thirst for those who are resting and rejoicing at the feast of Tabernacles. Even when people have everything, the corn and the wine, they realize that an inner thirst still persists. They may rejoice and enjoy the produce that is in their hands, yet only the Lord has the living water to quench their thirst." (Witness Lee, Life-study of John, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 17)

Key verses for pray-reading: John 7:37

Questions:

1. The Lord is our food and water for our life supply. This thought is seen throughout the entire scriptures. Please share on this thought using Genesis 2, Exodus 16 & 17, John 6 & 7, 1 Corinthians 10:3-4, and lastly Revelation 22:1-2.
2. What is the spiritual significance of the Feast of Passover? which is the background of John 6. How does that compare with the Feast of Tabernacles in John 7?
3. Use Lev. 23:39-43, Heb. 11:9-10, and Rev. 22:1,17 to show the significance of the Feast of Tabernacle in reminding God's people that all human life is in the wilderness, and we must take in the living water and journey toward our final goal--the eternal tabernacle of the New Jerusalem.
