Life-Study of John - Study Guide

Dear brothers and sisters,

We will continue this week's truth pursuit with message 28 of the Life-study of John - "Life's Washing in Love to Maintain Fellowship (2)". This life-study message covers John chapter 13.

Here is an excerpt from this message followed by key verses for pray-reading and questions for your study:

"...We need not only the foot-washing that is exercised directly by the Lord Himself but also the mutual foot-washing of one another. The Lord told us to wash one another's feet...We must wash one another's feet by ministering the work of the Holy Spirit, by ministering the enlightenment of the Word, and by ministering the operation of the inner life...Whenever we brothers come together for fellowship and prayer, we need to minister the spiritual foot-washing to one another. It is the spiritual foot-washing ministered to one another that keeps us clean from the earthly touch. Dear brothers, have you considered how much you need this kind of mutual foot-washing? While you are walking and working on this earth, you need not only the Lord's foot-washing ministered directly within your spirit but also the foot-washing from the brothers and sisters.

When the Lord washed the disciples' feet, He laid aside His garments. We have seen that, in figure, garments here signify the Lord's virtues and attributes in His expression and that the laying aside of His garments signifies the putting off of what He is in His expression...you need to lay aside your attainments, virtues, and attributes. This is real humility, the genuine humbling of yourself...How often we have had the thought, "Oh, they do not know the church life; they do not know how to walk in the spirit; they have never learned the lessons of the inner life." This is pride...We must lay aside all degrees of spirituality and become simple and general, saying to ourselves, "I am nothing, and nothing within me is special. I have only a towel, a piece of cloth, to gird me." We should not come to each other in the uniform of a policeman...

...Suppose a certain brother offends me unconsciously. Although he is unaware that he has offended me, I am conscious of the offense. What should I do? I must look to the Lord for His grace not to condemn my brother, but to wash his feet...I need to lay aside my garments and come down to his level...to be girded with a towel. This means that we must be bound, that we must lose our liberty...If the church life is to be kept fresh, new, pleasant, and living, we continually need this foot-washing. Every local church needs this." (Witness Lee, Life-study of John, Living Stream Ministry, Anaheim, CA, msg. 28).

Key Verses for pray-reading: John 13:3-5, 14, 34-35

Study questions:

1. Describe the foot-washing of the disciples by the Lord Himself. What was His charge afterward to His disciples?
2. How do we follow the example of the Lord and keep His word spiritually? What does it mean to lay aside outer garments? What does it mean to girdle with a towel?
3. What does the water in foot-washing mean spiritually? How do we apply foot-washing in church life?
