

Your wedding guests will talk about the dress, the venue, the party, the food, the cake, the music. But what they will always remember are the vows and speeches...

I am a Juilliard-trained actress and public speaker. I will help you craft the perfect words and coach you in delivering the most important performance of your life.

My services are always customized to fit your needs and preferences: In-person, virtual, on-site, from basic to "soup to nuts". It can also include speeches and toasts: Groom, father of the bride, maid of honor, best man, etc. I can even attend your rehearsal and wedding: Calm the nerves, preparations, last minute rehearsals, whatever it takes! And to round things off, I can be your Officiant also!

Pricing starts at $500.00.

Tanya Pushkine
917-522-6632
Tanya@TheVowWhisperer.com

Writing your vows

- An initial meeting or call to determine your needs
- Meetings with bride and groom
- Sessions to delve into the relationship, the journey, how you met, anecdotes, etc.
- Go over each component of the ceremony
- Work with you to put pen to paper
- Craft and customize the ceremony
- Source and suggest poems and readings
- Re-write, edit, and review of vows

Speeches and Toasts

- Assist family and friends with the writing and delivery of tasteful, meaningful, and humorous toasts
- Edits and rehearsals, as needed

Saying your vows

- Public speaking and delivery.
- Enunciation, projection, breathing, posture, body language, presence
- Establish cues, tempo and flow
- Practice sessions

In person, on-site support

- Officiant services
- My personal presence the day of, for overall support
- Last minute help with preparations and rehearsals of vows, readings/poems, and speeches