

TERMS & CONDITIONS

By signing the booking form and attending the show as an exhibitor you will be agreeing with the following terms and conditions.

Clarification In the context of these terms and conditions:

"Exhibitor" refers to any individual, firm, or company (including their employees or agents) who has applied for and been allocated stand space at The Liverpool Wedding Show exhibition.

"Exhibition" pertains to the specific event specified on the Booking Form.

"Organiser" denotes The Wedding Show Limited or its lawful assigns.

1. Display

The Exhibitor is strictly prohibited from displaying any exhibits or additional items not specified on the Booking Form without obtaining prior written consent from the Organiser. Items not listed in the Booking Form may be subject to removal by the Organiser. Moreover, the Exhibitor must refrain from displaying or distributing advertising literature or any unrelated items from their stand space or any other area within the Exhibition venue. Any items found outside the designated stand space will be removed without reimbursement. Should any complaints arise, they will be directed to the Organiser for resolution.

2. Presentation

The Organiser retains sole discretion in organizing and promoting the Exhibition in a manner deemed reasonably appropriate. They reserve the right to modify or alter the approach and methods of organization and promotion without providing any explanation or assuming liability.

Statements made by or on behalf of the Organiser regarding attendance, promotional methods, or timing shall be considered general indications and do not constitute any form of representation or warranty.

3. Stand Allocation

The Organiser will make note of all requests however is unable to confirm stands until 6 weeks prior to event. All stands are subject to change. The Organiser cannot be held responsible for change in stand allocation, but will endeavor to meet as many requests as possible.

4. Removal

The Exhibitor must strictly adhere to the specified times mentioned in the exhibition instructions. Failure to remove all property, furniture, and materials from the Exhibition venue by the contracted time on the final day will result in the removal of these items, and the Exhibitor will be held liable for all associated costs, including removal, storage, and disposal. The Organiser, venue, and show contractors will not be responsible for any damage to the Exhibitor's property or any losses incurred in such circumstances. Additionally, should the Exhibitor dismantle their stand before the scheduled end of the Exhibition, they may be subject to a £100 charge.

5. Obligations of the Exhibitor

(i) Failure of the Exhibitor to attend the Exhibition will result in a £250 charge in addition to the 100% cancellation charge outlined in T&Cs.

(ii) The Exhibitor must ensure that all displays maintain a professional standard and refrain from using handwritten or day-glow posters.

(iii) The Exhibitor must strictly adhere to all fire and safety regulations applicable to the Exhibition, ensuring that aisles and fire exits remain clear at all times.

(iv) The Exhibitor is responsible for adequately protecting all exhibits to prevent harm to visitors or participants at the Exhibition.

(v) The Exhibitor must promptly remove all crates and empty cartons not required on their stand from the Exhibition premises and arrange for their storage.

(vi) In cases where the Exhibitor requires electricity, they must provide their own extension leads. All electrical equipment used on the stand must possess the appropriate PAT certification, and cables must be covered with tape where applicable.

(vii) Unless explicitly agreed upon in writing with the Organiser, the Exhibitor may not bring alcoholic goods for personal consumption or serving to visitors.

(viii) The Organiser reserves the right to intervene if any activity by an Exhibitor causes annoyance to other exhibitors or visitors. All business transactions must take place exclusively from the Exhibitor's own stand, and conducting business in gangways or other areas within the Exhibition is strictly prohibited.

(ix) The use of microphones is not permitted unless prior approval is obtained from the Organiser.

(x) Any encroachment on gangways or passages will be considered a breach of these terms, and the Organiser may remove any goods or articles found in these areas during the Exhibition. The Organiser shall not be held responsible for any loss resulting from such removal.

(xi) Publicity materials may only be displayed or distributed from the Exhibitor's main stand.

(xii) The Organiser reserves the right to reject or partially prohibit any Exhibitor for non-compliance with these terms and conditions. In such cases, there will be no refund of payment if the Organiser deems it reasonably necessary to do so.

6. The Organisers Obligations

(i) The Organiser commits to taking all reasonable measures to ensure the provision of essential services for the smooth functioning of the Exhibition. However, they shall not be held responsible for any breakdown or failure of such services that occur beyond their control.

(ii) The Organiser does not provide any assurance or guarantee of any kind concerning the goods or services offered, sold, or traded at the event. No such representations or warranties shall be made or implied by the Organiser in relation to the event.

7. Assignment

The Exhibitor must not assign, sub-let nor grant licenses in respect of the whole or any part of the stand space allocated to them without prior written permission of the Organiser.

8. Photography and Filming Notice

Please be advised that photography and filming will take place throughout "The Wedding Show." The event organisers and private contractors will retain all rights to the media captured during the event. This footage may be used for promotional purposes following the event. If you do not wish to appear in any photos or videos, please notify us prior to the event. Failure to inform us beforehand may result in your image, or that of your company, being used in the media.

8. Cancellation

(i) Should the Exhibitor wish to cancel after the Organiser has received the booking form or fail to meet any payment obligations detailed in the Booking Form, the Organiser reserves the right (without any obligation and without prejudice to any other available right or remedy) to apply the following cancellation/termination charges and to resell or reallocate the stand space:

- a) Cancellation occurring 12 months before the event date - a cancellation charge of 10% of the total cost plus VAT.
- b) Cancellation occurring between 12 months and 6 months before the event date - a cancellation charge of 25% of the total cost plus VAT.
- c) Cancellation occurring between 6 months and 3 months before the event date - a cancellation charge of 50% plus VAT.
- d) Cancellation occurring between 3 months and 2 months before the event date - a cancellation charge of 90% plus VAT.
- e) Cancellation occurring 1 month before the event date - a cancellation charge of 100% of the total cost plus VAT.

(ii) If the Exhibitor wishes to cancel the stand space booking, they must provide written notice to the Organiser within the specified time frames mentioned above. The Organiser is not obligated to accept the Exhibitor's notice of cancellation.

(iii) The Organiser may resell or reallocate the cancelled stand space but is not obligated to reimburse any part of the cancellation charge.

9. Payment of Stand Space

To secure the stand space, the Exhibitor must submit a non-refundable deposit as specified in the Booking Form, amounting to a minimum of 25% of the total stand space cost. The remaining balance of the stand space cost must be settled no later than 6 weeks before the show event. Failure to make payments in accordance with the Booking Form may result in the Organiser implementing the cancellation/termination charges outlined below. The Organiser reserves the right to resell or reallocate the stand space but is not obligated to reimburse the cancellation/termination charge. The Exhibitor shall remain responsible for any outstanding amount under the Booking Form.

10. Insolvency of the Exhibitor

In the event that the Exhibitor becomes bankrupt, receives a receiving order, enters into a creditors' arrangement, or undergoes liquidation (for Limited Companies), the Booking Form with the Exhibitor will be automatically terminated. Subsequently, the Cancellation terms and charges outlined below shall be enforced.

11. Abandonment or Postponement

(i) In the event of Exhibition abandonment, postponement, relocation, limitations on venue use, or any failure in provided services, the Exhibitor, their agents, or contractors shall have no claim against the Organiser for resulting losses or damages. Moreover, such circumstances shall not impact the Exhibitor's liabilities to the Organiser in any way.

(ii) The Organiser assumes no responsibility in the case of delays or prevention of goods' delivery, materials, or work execution caused by factors beyond their control, including, but not limited to: a) Strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, or restrictions.

b) Failure of the Exhibitor, their agents, or contractors to provide instructions or necessary stand plans.

12. Exhibitor and Consequential Liability

(i) The Exhibitor assumes full liability for all their actions or omissions, as well as those of their employees, servants, contractors, agents, and visitors. They further undertake to indemnify and hold the Organiser harmless against any and all liabilities arising from such actions or omissions. This includes indemnification for any legal actions, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, costs, and expenses incurred by the Organiser resulting from the supply of merchandise or samples by the Exhibitor, whether sold or offered as complimentary. The Organiser may incur legal costs, compensation, disbursements, and expenses in the settlement of such claims based on counsel advice.

(ii) The Organiser, venue owner, and their contractors or employees are not responsible for the safety of any exhibit or property belonging to the Exhibitor or any other individual. They are not liable for any loss, damage, or destruction of such property due to theft, fire, or any other cause. Furthermore, the Organiser shall not be held responsible for any losses or damages incurred by the Exhibitor due to defects in the venue building or structure caused by fire, storm, tempest, lightning, national emergency, war, terrorism, labour disputes, strikes, lockouts, civil disturbances, explosions, accidents, force majeure, or any other events beyond the control of the Organiser, whether foreseeable or not. The Organiser shall not be liable for any consequential or financial losses or damages resulting from such events or if the venue becomes wholly or partially unavailable for the Exhibition.

13. Insurance

The Exhibitor must obtain suitable third-party liability insurance coverage for a minimum of £1,000,000 and provide a copy of the insurance policy to the Organiser upon request. Additionally, the Exhibitor should secure insurance covering cancellation, abandonment, postponement, the full replacement value of their stand space contents, all associated ancillary equipment, materials, and other contingencies as specified in these terms and conditions.
