

Drug Free Youth

Since 2013 the opioid epidemic has played a major role in the transformation of New London County youth from productive to unproductive, unsupervised kids, with too much time to get into trouble. .

The Littles Project plans to work with and provide this particular group with valuable structured programs. The Littles Project programs will empower young people by providing life skills and anti-drug programs. Resulting in real life empowerment for our youth and help transform New London County back to the beautiful towns they once were.

A.D.A.P.T.E.D.

(Alcohol & Drug Abuse Prevention Treatment Educational Directive)

Through our A.D.A.P.T.E.D. program, we will strive to provide education on drugs and alcohol abuse prevention. We display a healthy example of what a positive role model is and help our youth adapt to their broken communities though an alternative to healthier choices.

V.I.N.E.

(Venue of Influence for Natural Expression)

For our youth that is more interested in Academics Than Athletics. The V.I.N.E. program will help our youth to find healthy ways to express themselves through The Creative Arts and The Performing Arts.

R.E.A.C.T.

(Raising Education & Awareness through Computers and Technology)

R.E.A.C.T. is a program which is dedicated to educating our youth on the ever-changing trends in technology and the computer industry. The lesson includes a range of activities from basic keyboarding & programming, coding, app and website building. Also social media networking/marketing and much more.

P.U.R.E.

(Positive Uplifting through Recreational Expression)

Our P.U.R.E. program is designed to teach discipline, leadership, respect, expression, dedication, and teamwork though recreational sports.

J.E.M.

(Journalism & Expressive Media)

J.E.M. a Creative Writing and Media program that will help our youth to learn how to express themselves figuratively through writing and journalism; as well as learn the ins and outs of the media industry.

R.E.L.Y.

(Real Elements for Loving Yourself)

R.E.L.Y. is all about Beauty, Health and Hygiene. Our youth will be taught health and hygiene lessons, Learn how and what the benefits are of making all-natural cosmetics, and most importantly lessons on loving oneself inside and out.
