ARTICLE I – NATIONAL ORGANIZATION

Military Order of the Purple Heart USA, Inc. – (MOPH) – (Order)

Section 1 – REGIONS.

A. Region is a geographical grouping of states and territories for membership expansion.
   A National Region Commander is elected annually from each of the following Regions.
   2) Region II Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, West Virginia, and Wisconsin.
   4) Region IV Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, Puerto Rico, South Carolina, and Tennessee.
   5) Region V Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas.
   6) Region VI Arizona, California, Guam, Hawaii, Nevada, and Utah.

B. Region Commanders shall conduct a Region meeting each year to be held no later than the end of October. The meeting may be held digitally.

Section 2 – DEPARTMENTS.

A. Departments may be organized where there are two or more active chapters, with a minimum combined membership of 100 members and associate members, in any state, territory, or foreign country.

B. All chapters within such state, territory, or country shall be subordinate to the department.

C. “Active” is defined as a department that has submitted a current election report.

Section 3 – CHAPTERS.

A. A chapter may be formed by the authority of the National Commander on the application of not less than 12 Purple Heart recipients who are members in the Military Order of the Purple Heart of the USA, Inc.

B. No chapter shall be recognized by the Order unless operating under a valid charter.

C. Charter requirements:
   1) Applications for a chapter or department charter shall be submitted to the National Headquarters on a form to be furnished by the National Adjutant.
   2) The charter members listed on the charter application and on the charter document shall be Purple Heart recipients.
3) Chapter charter applications must be endorsed by the Commander of the Department or in the absence of a Department Commander, the Region Commander may endorse the charter.

4) No new chapter shall be given the same name or number as an existing or former chapter.

5) No chapter shall bear the name of a living person.

6) Chapters may request a specific number; otherwise, National will assign the next available number on the sequential list.

D. “Active” is defined as a chapter that has submitted a current election report.

Section 4 – INSTITUTION

A. Upon the issuance of a chapter charter, the Commander of the Department having jurisdiction handles the institution of the chapter.

B. In those cases, where there is no such department or in the case of the forming of a new department, the Region Commander shall have the responsibility to appoint the Instituting Officer.

Section 5 – INSTALLING OFFICER

The Installing Officer may or may not be the same individual as the Instituting Officer.

The Installing Officer will:

A. Install, in accordance with the Bylaws and Ritual of the Order, and instruct the officers in their duties.

B. Deliver to the Chapter/Department Commander who was installed, copies of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Rituals of the Order.

C. Make a report in writing to National Headquarters.

1) Giving the name and the number of the chapter that was installed, as well as the number of members obligated at the time of the institution.

2) The names and addresses of the installed officers elected to serve until the next election.

Section 6 – SURRENDER of CHARTER

No charter shall be surrendered by any active chapter that has at least 12 living members.

Section 7 – TRANSFERS.

A. Any member may request to be transferred to another chapter or to an At-Large status by submitting an MOPH Transfer Request form to the National Adjutant.

B. The National Adjutant will make the transfer and notify the gaining and losing chapters of such action.

C. The receiving chapter may vote not to accept the transferred member, within 90 calendar days of the notification of the transfer.
D. A member shall not belong to more than one chapter.

Section 8 - DISPOSITION of MEMBERS

Member(s) of a defunct chapter may be transferred to another chapter nearest to his or her residence or may become a Department Member–at–Large at the member’s discretion. The National Adjutant will provide the member(s) with a list of the locations of chapters in the area.

Section 9 - REVIVAL.

A. Subject to the approval of the National Commander a chapter/department which was previously disbanded may be reinstated provided:
   1) The department making application for reinstatement follows the National Bylaws as to the number of members and chapters.
   2) The chapter charter may be reinstated with its original name and number.

B. A new charter will be issued, bearing the names of the petitioning members.

Section 10 - BYLAWS

A. Departments and chapters may adopt Bylaws that do not conflict with the Constitution and Bylaws of the Military Order of Purple Heart, of the USA, Inc.

B. Chapters and departments must send their bylaws to the National Judge Advocate for review to ensure compliance with the National Bylaws.
   1) The Judge Advocate will make a recommendation to the National Commander about their compliance with the Order’s Bylaws.
   2) The National Adjutant will notify the chapter/department of the National Commander’s decision.

ARTICLE II - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 - APPLICATION

A. Every application for admission to membership in the Order must be on a form provided by the National Headquarters.

B. Applications for membership must be submitted to the National Headquarters with a copy of the applicant’s DD–214, DD–215, AGO 53–55 or General Orders of the award of a Purple Heart. Certificates showing the award of the Purple Heart Medal are not accepted.

C. The Fees submitted with an Application for Membership are NONREFUNDABLE.

A. The chapter’s charter may be suspended or revoked for failure to follow lawful order(s) and directive(s) as authorized by the Constitution and/or Bylaws.

B. The steps to request suspension are:

1) The Department Commander may request the Department Inspector to investigate and report on the facts.

2) The Department Commander must make a request for chapter suspension.

3) The Region Commander must concur with the Department Commander’s request for suspension or revocation of the charter.

4) The National Commander may request the National Inspector to investigate the situation.

a) The National Inspector will report the findings of the investigation to the National Commander and the respective Department and Region Commanders.

b) The date(s) and location(s) of the investigation will be in the report.

c) The names of everyone interviewed during the investigation will be in the report.

d) Any evidence gleaned will be included but not limited to:

   (1) Oral
   (2) Written
   (3) Financial records
   (4) E-mails and all digital evidence
   (5) Pictures or digital imaging
   (6) A summary report will give the facts and findings based on the evidence.

5) The Region Commander and/or the National Commander may appoint a responsible, unbiased, and uninvolved member or a professional mediator for mediation of the dispute. The Mediator will give a full and complete report to the appointing Commander.

6) After the inspection with or without mediation, the National Commander will decide whether to approve or disapprove the Department Commander’s request for suspension.

7) The National Commander will have the National Adjutant (within seven [7] calendar days) submit a request for approval of the Commanders decision to suspend a chapter for sixty (60) calendar days for an approval vote of the NEC. The vote will be done by a digital vote.
8) The NEC will have fifteen (15) calendar days to read the facts, the entirety of the evidence, and its recommendation(s) and vote. The request to the NEC must allow the committee to download the whole package of the Commander’s request.

9) After the National Commander’s review of the election results, the tally of votes will be sent out by the National Adjutant to NEC following the procedures in Article XII Section 2 I.

10) If any of the provisions of ARTICLE XV, Section 8 & 9) are not followed exactly, then the vote is invalid and must be redone. There are no exceptions to this rule.

11) If a suspension is approved by the NEC, the National Adjutant will send the notice of the suspension to:
   a) The Chapter Commander and Adjutant via USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested.
   b) To all the chapter members with a copy of the Department Commander’s letter requesting the suspension with the signatures of the Region Commander and National Commander. It will include all evidence submitted to the NEC.

12) The chapter has sixty (60) calendar days to submit a formal appeal to the suspension, via USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested to the National Commander and National Adjutant with copies to the Department and Region Commanders.
   a) The Department Commander, as the requesting officer, has the authority to lift the suspension, if the chapter has resolved the problems by acting to correct the issue(s) that caused the suspension.
   b) Notification of the removal of the suspension will be delivered to the chapter Commander, the Chapter Adjutant, and the National Adjutant (within (7) calendar days) via USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested.
   c) The National Commander may lift the suspension if the chapter has resolved the problems by acting to correct the issue(s) that caused the suspension or if the chapter’s appeal is granted.
   d) Notification of the removal of the suspension will be delivered to the Chapter Commander and Chapter Adjutant and the National Adjutant (within seven (7) calendar days) via USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested.

14) The chapter’s charter may be revoked after the sixty calendar days’ suspension if the chapter fails to comply with the lawful directives and orders and their appeal is not granted.
(a) The Department Commander with the concurrence of the Region Commander must request the National Commander to proceed with the revocation of the chapter’s charter.

(b) The National Commander will have the National Adjutant notify the Chapter Commander and Chapter Adjutant via USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested of the intention to revoke the chapter’s charter.

(c) The chapter has sixty (60) calendar days to appeal the revocation of the charter through the chain of command to the National Commander.

(1) Any member(s) of the chapter may file an amicus brief with the Department Commander, thru the Region Commander to the National Commander stating any objections and reasons to halt the proposed revocation of the charter. The National Commander shall then consider all evidence and briefs submitted.

(2) If no brief(s) is filed, and the National Commander denies the chapter’s appeal, the revocation process will continue.

15) The National Adjutant will send a vote to the NEC asking for a vote “for” or “against” the revocation of the charter (within fifteen (15) calendar days) after the end of the sixty-day appeal period.

16) A copy of the Department Commander’s letter requesting the revocation of the charter with the concurrence of the Region Commander and approval by the National Commander will be sent to the chapter. All evidence submitted will be included in the notice package sent to the NEC.

17) Fifteen (15) calendar days will be allowed for the return of votes. The count of calendar days begins the day after the mail and digital votes are sent out.

18) After the National Commander’s review, the tally results will be sent out by the National Adjutant to the NEC to show how each counted vote was cast. (This is to ensure each NEC member’s vote was recorded properly by the tellers.)

19) The NEC vote will not be held over to the next Executive Committee unless the meeting is within forty-five (45) calendar days of the beginning of the National Convention.

Section 9 – SURRENDER of PROPERTY

A. When a chapter is declared defunct or its charter is revoked the charter, rituals, paraphernalia, and property must be sent to the department. Any monies will be sent to the National Corporation to be held in trust for a period of twelve (12) months.

B. When a department is declared defunct or its charter is revoked the charter, rituals, paraphernalia, and property may be sent to the chapters within the state. Any monies will be sent to the National Corporation to be held in trust for a period of twelve (12).

C. In the event, such chapter charter is not reinstated within a period of twelve (12), the monies from any chapter that was in a duly chartered department shall automatically become the absolute property of the department.

D. If a department charter is revoked or declared defunct and is not reinstated within a period of twelve (12), the monies from that department shall be distributed to all remaining chapter(s) in the state.

1) The distribution of funds will be distributed evenly among the chapters within the state.

2) The chapters must have a current election report on file with the National Adjutant.

Section 10 – USE of PURPLE HEART.

A. Replicas or facsimiles of the Purple Heart, as awarded by the Government of the United States, shall not be made, caused to be made, or used in any manner that would tend to degrade the award, or permit any commercial use thereof.

B. Replicas or facsimiles may be used only for the official papers of the Corporation or subordinate units thereof.

Section 11 – AUTHORITY.

If any commander is the subject of a grievance, charge or recall, the Senior Vice Commander shall assume the role of the Commander to adjudicate the matter.

Section 12 – GRIEVANCE.

A. A grievance is a complaint from a member for some action which causes disruption within the Order.

1) Grievances can only be filed against individual Patriot(s).

2) Grievances consist of quantified unfairness, affront(s), insult(s), or indignity.

   a) Grievances do NOT involve misfeasance, malfeasance, malicious or intentional violation(s) of the Constitution and/or Bylaws of the Military Order of the Purple Heart of the USA, Inc.

   b) Misfeasance, malfeasance, malicious or intentional actions are covered in Article XV Section 13.

B. A grievance may be submitted by a member(s) to the appropriate next level commander with a copy to the National Adjutant.

1) Grievance(s) among the same chapter’s member(s) will be heard at the department level before three current or past Department Commanders. The commanders do not have to be from the same department where the grievance is filed.
2) Grievance(s) among department member(s) from different chapters will be heard at the Region level before any combination of three past or current Department Commander(s) or past or current Region Commanders. The commanders do not have to be from the same department or region where the grievance is filed.

3) A grievance against a current elected or appointed National officers will be heard at the National level.

4) Department grievance committee will consist of any combination of three Past Department Commanders or Past/Current Region Commanders.

5) National grievance committees will consist of any combination of three Past National Commanders and/or current or Past Region Commanders.

C. The grievance complaint must be in writing and in sufficient detail to establish the facts.

1) The following procedures shall be followed without exception:
   a) Be signed
   b) Notarized.
   c) The formal signed and notarized grievance(s) will be sent to the commander at the next higher level.
   d) The formal signed and notarized grievance(s) will be sent via USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested to the individual(s) against whom the grievance(s) is filed.

2) The Judge Advocate at the appropriate level shall review the grievance to ensure that it meets the requirements of a formal grievance.
   a) A failure to comply with all the requirements of Article XV Section 12, C, 1), a) thru d) will render the grievance(s) invalid.
   b) All concerned parties will be notified that the Judge Advocate has provided a written opinion that the grievance meets the requirements of a formal grievance. The notification will be via USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested.

D. The commander may appoint a disinterested and unbiased member from any department for mediation of the dispute. A professional mediator may be used.

1) The Judge Advocate at any level must remain neutral and will not be the mediator.

2) If the mediation efforts fail:
   a) A written report to the commander and all parties involved will be sent via USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested by the Mediator.
b) A thirty (30) calendar days’ period shall elapse before further action is taken. Said thirty (30) calendar days’ period starts the day after the letter to the commander is postmarked.

E. Grievance(s) will be heard by a grievance committee composed of three impartial commanders at the appropriate level (Article XV Section 12 B, 1) thru 5).

1) A recorder (who has no vote) will be obtained to provide a written transcript of the proceedings.

2) The commander who appoints the grievance committee will take care in selecting members who have no personal involvement, prejudice, or who have not been consulted about the issues of the grievance to be heard.

3) The convening commander will select the grievance committee chairman.

F. The Grievance Panel shall:

1) Provide for an accurate record of the proceedings which include a summary of the Grievance Committee’s finding(s).

2) Announce the findings after the committee has discussed and voted. Every issue noted in the grievance must be addressed separately.

3) Recommend action(s) based on the announced finding of the Grievance Panel.

4) Forward the finding(s) and recommendation(s) via USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested to the appropriate Commander, Petitioner, and all participating parties within fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of the close of the hearing.

G. The usual finding(s) should result in appropriate actions to eliminate the grievance.

H. The recommendations of the grievance committee for a penalty can only be one of the following four actions:

1) A Commander’s Meeting

2) A Verbal Reprimand

3) A Formal Letter of Reprimand.

4) A recommendation for new and separate action e.g. to bring charges under Section 13 will require initiation of formal charges to comply with the requirements of Article XV Section 13.

I. A member who is salaried employee regarding matters of employment may only use such grievance procedures as provided for in the MOPH Policy for Salaried Employees.

Section 13 – DISCIPLINE, TRANSFER, and EXPULSION of MEMBERS

A. Charges
1) No member or associate member of the Military Order of the Purple Heart of the USA, Inc., may be punished or have any membership rights abridged except for the following reasons:
   a) Intentional, willful, and/or malicious violation of the Constitution and/or Bylaws of the MOPH.
   b) Misfeasance or malfeasance.
   c) Refusal to comply with the lawful orders—as defined in the Constitution and/or Bylaws—of a Commander or the National Convention body.
   d) Willful misconduct and/or malicious violation of the oath of office.
      (1) Repeated violations of the oath of office are considered “willful misconduct” which is chargeable under this sub-section.
      (2) The repeated violations do not have to be from the same part of the oath, but can be used to establish a pattern of “willful misconduct.”
      (3) A claim of ignorance of the bylaws is not a defense against “willfully” violating the “oath of office.”
   e) Action which brings discredit to the Order.
   f) Conviction of a crime involving theft or moral turpitude
2) No charges may be adjudicated against a member or associate member who has submitted a resignation from the Order.
   a) The effective date of a resignation is the date on the postmark on the envelope of the resignation letter or other written correspondence. The National Adjutant shall date stamp the receipt of the resignation notification.
   b) The effective date of a resignation for an e-mail is the date it was sent out.
      A printout copy will be made as evidence of the date. It will be part of Charges Evidence Package.
   c) The charges, evidence, statements, testimony, and all other documents will be put in a sealed file and be retained by the National Adjutant.
   d) If the former member reapplyes for membership, the charges will be reviewed by the National Judge Advocate, who will then:
      (1) Confer with the commander now at the level in the chain of command where the adjudication was halted because of the resignation.
      (2) Make a recommendation to the jurisdictional commander as to whether the adjudication should proceed from the point where the procedures stopped.
      (3) The jurisdictional commander will make the decision about proceeding with or dropping the charges.
B. The preferring of charges should be an action of last resort. Every effort in the chain of command should be made to solve problems without the necessity of filing formal charges. Should all efforts fail, charges may be filed as follows:

1) Any chapter commander may bring charges on any chapter member if the Department Judge Advocate provided a written opinion that the chapter commander has complied with all the requirement in (Article XV Section 13).

2) Any department commander may bring charges on any member of the department if the Department Judge Advocate provided a written opinion that the department commander has complied with all the requirement in (Article XV Section 13).

3) Any region commander may bring charges on any member of the region if the Nation Judge Advocate provided a written opinion that the commander has complied with all the requirement in (Article XV Section 13).

4) The National Commander may always bring charges on any member of the Order if the Nation Judge Advocate provided a written opinion that the commander has complied with all the requirement in (Article XV Section 13).

   a) If the National Commander brings charges, he/she will not be allowed to make any decisions during the appeal process.

   b) The next subordinate commander, who is not involved in the adjudication of charges, will be the officer deciding on the appeal.

5) Any three members of the Order may join in the submission of charges.

   a) The Nation Judge Advocate must provide a written opinion that the charges brought by the three members comply with all the requirement in (Article XV Section 13).

   b) The National Commander, National Senior Vice Commander, or Junior Vice Commander may not join with other members to bring charges. (This ban on bringing charges is to ensure that an accused member is guaranteed a non-prejudiced appeal).

6) Formal charges must be written in sufficient detail to establish the fact(s) of a violation of one or more of the circumstances listed in Article XV Section 1 a) thru f). Charges must be signed and notarized.

7) The charges will be sent via USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested to the Adjutant at the level where the charges are brought and a copy to the National Adjutant.

8) A prior confidential investigation by an elected Inspector is encouraged to ascertain all relevant facts.

9) Adjudication shall be imposed at the next higher level.
a) Charges brought against a chapter member will be heard at the department level. The panel will consist of three current or past chapter or department commanders. The commanders do not have to be from the same state.

b) Charges brought against a department elected, appointed officers, or department or national members—at—large (DML & NML) will be heard at the region or national level. The panel will consist of three disinterested members of the national executive committee, who have demonstrated a clear understanding of the constitution and bylaws.

c) Charges against national elected or appointed officers will be heard by a disciplinary hearing panel. The panel will consist of three disinterested members of the national executive committee, who have demonstrated a clear understanding of the constitution and bylaws.

C. Procedures for the Handling of Received Charges:

1) The convening authority which is the commander at the next highest level will provide the accused with a copy of the notarized charges, all related documents, evidence, and a clear statement of the alleged violations.

   a) The accused member or the associate member will be notified of the hearing time, date, and place. The date of the hearing will not be set without consulting with the accused for available dates.

   b) All hearings will be fixed for a date not less than 20 calendar days or more than 60 calendar days from the date (to be determined by the USPS return receipt) the accused received the charges.

   c) Should the accused require additional time to prepare his or her case, the convening authority may allow only one postponement of the hearing date for a period of not more than thirty (30) calendar days. The convening authority should be notified a minimum of ten (10) calendar days prior to the scheduled hearing date.

   d) All correspondence with the accused will be sent via USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested.

2) The convening authority will appoint:

   a) A disciplinary hearing panel

   b) The chairman.

3) The convening authority will arrange for an impartial recorder for the proceedings to keep an accurate record of the proceedings. Due to the problems in getting an accurate transcription of hearings, a certified professional recorder is required.
D. Procedures for a Disciplinary Hearing Panel:

1) This is an administrative hearing and rules of evidence as in a court of law do not apply.

2) If the accused does not appear as directed, the hearing will proceed without them. In cases of extenuating circumstances, the hearing may be postponed, provided proof is submitted to the National Adjutant. The chairman of the hearing panel will be notified of the postponement.

3) The accused member or associate member may represent themselves or may retain counsel. Counsel can advise the accused but may not address the hearing panel.

4) The accused has the right to speak and produce witnesses in his or her own defense.

5) The chairman will introduce the parties on both sides and the panel.

6) The chairman will read the notification of charges as written in the notarized charges letter. No new charges may be added at the hearing.

7) The chairman will then ask the accused how he or she pleads to each charge—guilty or not guilty.

8) Opening statements are made by both sides with the hearing panel starting first.

9) The testimony of any witness(s) produced by the panel will be followed by the testimony of any defense witness(s). Cross-examination of the witness(s) is allowed.

10) Rebuttal witnesses are allowed with the panel going first followed by the defense.

11) After closing arguments are completed by both sides; the hearing panel will go into “executive session” (in accordance with Roberts Rules) with only the panel members being present.

a) The chairman will poll each member of the panel on each charge for a finding of guilt or innocence.

b) If the member is found guilty, a member of the hearing panel other than the chairman will make a motion for an appropriate penalty.

c) The hearing panel will vote on the motion for the penalty.

12) The hearing will be reconvened and the panel chairman will report to the accused for the record, the finding of guilt or innocence on each charge.

13) After resuming the hearing, the panel chairman will report the recommendations for punishment on charges when the member is found guilty.

14) The hearing will be adjourned.
E. If found guilty, the penalty that may be imposed under this section are:

1) Censure – shall consist of a written reprimand of admonition to the member by the appropriate commander.

2) Transfer – shall be the permanent transfer of membership to another chapter or to either a department or national member–at–large status.

3) Suspension – shall remove the member from membership and/or from any office held by them for not more than one year from the date of receipt by the member as determined by the USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested.

4) Restriction – shall be allowed to remain a chapter member with a vote, but shall have a restriction from being allowed to hold any elected or appointed office at any level for a specific length of time or permanently for life.

5) Expulsion – shall remove the individual from membership.

F. Post–Hearing Procedures

1) Within fifteen (15) calendar days after the close of the hearing the following shall be done:
   a) The accused will be sent:
      (1) The written decision(s) of guilt or innocence on each charge via USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested.
      (2) The recommended action(s) of the Hearing Panel.
      (3) A transcript of the proceeding when it becomes available will be sent via digital means.
   b) The commander who was the convening authority will be sent via digital means transcript of the proceeding when it becomes available.
   c) Additional copies along with a transcript of the proceedings will be sent via digital means to the chairman of the hearing panel and the appropriate adjutant with a copy to the National Adjutant.

2) In all cases of recommended expulsion, the National Adjutant must be notified immediately.

3) All hearing decisions, except for expulsions, will be final after allowing a fifteen (15) calendar days’ period after the decision unless the accused submits an appeal. The starting date for the appeal period is to be determined by the date as recorded on the USPS Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested.

G. Review and Appeal:

1) A member may appeal the decision of the hearing panel to the next higher level within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of both the decision and a transcript of the hearing.
2) An appeal shall be limited to the specific violations of established procedures, the rights of the accused, or on new evidence.

3) The reviewing commander will decide on the merits of the appeal and may take any action other than increasing the recommended punishment.

4) The National Commander is the final appeal on all actions taken.
   a) The National Commander will not hear or rule on the appeal if he or she brought the charges.
   b) The National Commander will recuse himself or herself on appeals where there was personal involvement.

H. All appeals by members concerning any decision rendered by a national disciplinary panel will be presented to the NEC along with the facts and the recommended actions.
   1) The accused will be allowed to provide documentation setting forth evidence and facts to be included with documents provided by the National Commander.
   2) The NEC members must be allowed up to fifteen (15) calendar days to review the case before voting on the matter.

The NEC approved the amendments to the 1984 Bylaws on June 2, 2017.

August 2016 - The revision of the 1984 Bylaws as amended through the 2015 convention was ordered by National Commander Hershel Gober. There were major flaws and conflicts in the wording of Sections that needed to be addressed. It had been thirty-three years since the last complete review of the Bylaws. During that time, the use of digital communication had been improved exponentially. The goal was to make the Bylaws easy to read, understandable, and improve the timeliness of communication.

Bylaws committee members who recommended the revisions:
- Neil Van Ess (Chairman)
- Nick McIntosh (Secretary)
- Dave Bowman
- Dave Price
- Chris Smrt
- Jim Anderson
- Wendy Buckingham
- Zac Fike
- Char Gatlin
- Doug Middleton

2017 National Convention corrected a typo in the June 2, 2017 version by removing “March.”

2017 National Convention amended to provide for digital elections because of inclement weather.

2017 National Convention amended allowing for more potential chairmen of allowing the National Commander to select who he/she thinks is best qualified to do the job.

2017 National Convention amended allowing more potential chairmen of the bylaws committee.

2017 National Convention amended allowing more potential chairmen of the bylaws committee.

2017 National Convention amended to allow for Department Senior or Junior Vice Commander to represent the Department at pre-convention and post-convention NEC Meetings.

The wording of the United States Code for non-profit veterans’ organizations was included because there have been many discussions about opening the eligibility of associate membership to adopted and step-children. The law strictly defines who may be associate members.

2017 National Convention amended to remove the word “Ladies” is all but one historical reference.

2017 National Convention amended to remove free membership, because of the potential costs.
