

Gothic & Supernatural Movies

Vampires & Undead

1. Bram Stoker's Dracula (1992) – Francis Ford Coppola's lush, romantic, gothic vampire epic.
2. Interview with the Vampire (1994) – Moody, sensual, and elegantly dark.
3. Only Lovers Left Alive (2013) – Slow, stylish, modern vampire romance with an indie vibe.
4. Let the Right One In (2008, Swedish) – Haunting, atmospheric, and beautifully shot.

Witches & Dark Magic

5. The Witch (2015) – Deeply unsettling, historically grounded horror with stark cinematography.
6. The Love Witch (2016) – Retro, 60s/70s aesthetic with empowering, magical themes.
7. Suspiria (1977) – Visually stunning, eerie dance academy full of witches.

Ghosts & Hauntings

8. The Others (2001) – Atmospheric haunted house with psychological tension.
9. Crimson Peak (2015) – Guillermo del Toro gothic romance; breathtaking visuals and haunting story.
10. The Innocents (1961) – Classic psychological ghost story; eerie and elegant.

Classic Gothic / Fairy Tale

11. Sleepy Hollow (1999) – Tim Burton's moody, stylish take on the Headless Horseman.
12. Pan's Labyrinth (2006) – Dark fairy tale, gothic fantasy with surreal, haunting imagery.
13. Coraline (2009) – Stop-motion gothic fantasy; visually dark but mesmerizing.

Cult / Indie Cool

14. Cracks (2009) – Psychological, mysterious boarding school story with gothic undertones.
15. The Crow (1994) – Stylized gothic revenge with iconic visuals and a dark, moody tone.
16. Near Dark (1987) – Cult vampire western; gritty, stylish, and unconventional.

Bonus Atmospheric Picks

17. Let Me In (2010, US remake of Let the Right One In) – Dark, moody vampire story.
18. Thirst (2009, Korean) – Stylish, morally complex vampire drama.
19. The Skeleton Key (2005) – Southern gothic, mystical suspense.

20. Crimson Peak (2015) – Tim Burton-level gothic visuals, haunted romance.