

The Modern Bund

It has become evident that the "Bolsheviks," "Mensheviks," as well as the "Jewish Bund," as it has been titled, formed a sort of underground political establishment after migrating to the USA post World War II. Their politics more than likely began prior to World War I, as evidenced in the documentation and writings of Jewish and German women. These foot soldiers invented forced film as a weapon of war, "boyfriending," and political trafficking campaigns of Jewish and German women that followed their trails to the USA and began targeting Americans. Along with peddling, mafia and mob formations, and every sort of organized crime, they succeeded the evil way.

These criminal activists have participated in the worst of the worst, including, sadly, the erasure of American history and the forcing of modern colonialism onto the American population. These experiences have changed and altered the demographic landscape of the U.S. permanently and, following many instances of corporate corruption, including the pandemic, have resulted in the death and suffering of many.

This conclusion was empirical and is evidenced throughout activist arenas and society, which is now riddled with fraud and corruption, including modern forms of ghettoing, the infiltration of politics by corrupt foreign actors, mass instrumental migration, and anti-White hatred, an issue many Americans did not fully understand. Activists left in shock, they witnessed this corruption up close and personal, something many never knew was a reality, until now. Palestine and modern activist arenas unearthed a new reality.

Even though this "Bund" was often White by definition, its members did not see themselves as such, though Americans and others did. This clandestine nature, combined with Native vulnerability, left many White Americans open to unseen racism, suppression, and suffering, including modern forms of slavery. As White women were primarily made vulnerable, preyed upon and targeted by men they believed were also White, this hidden nature aided the "Off-White" political Bund in its pursuit of slaves; Yet another criminal succession.

Americans have witnessed a revolution of hatred directed toward them. Of -ver the hosts, an experience that can only be described as a trafficking parasite of monstrosity. These colonizers and traffickers seek to harm the American people with every weapon and instrument they can. Human rights abuses, power and control over Americans and slavery are their priorities. Slavery, war, financial repression, propaganda, political PACs, forced migration, cyber warfare, biological warfare, and whatever other weapons they can use. It is very clear, the realm of this Bund is still in the house, and today it seeks to harm Americans to the point of warfare. To sell its native citizens out, to replace them, and to make itself more comfortable in the American house.

America is not a "protected group," but this anti-American group on US soil sure is. The goal of Americans today? Stay true to America, American values and Americans. At this late stage, there is no denying "our new normal." A civil war that could have been avoided if these newcomers shared the same humanity that Americans had. A war overseas, a war on our home front.

Today, despite sharing the same territory, we must go our separate ways. The traffickers and the modern warfarers have chosen to harm the American people and to undermine our value of freedom, leaving us with no choice but to fight; we are fighting political slavery. They share the activist arena with foreign enemies, thugs, guerrillas, and the cartel. This enemy to the American way of life is what we refer to as the modern "Bund."
