Hammer and sickle

Symbol of communism

The hammer and sickle is a communist symbol that represents unity between workers and peasants. It was designed in 1918 by Yevgeny Kamzolkin and adopted during the Russian Revolution at the end of World War I. After the Russian Civil War, the hammer and sickle became more widely used as a symbol for labor within the Soviet Union and for international proletarian unity. It was taken up by many communist movements around the world, some with local variations... Continued in Wikipedia

Chinese Communist Party

Founding and ruling party of the People's Republic of China

12371.cn

The Communist Party of China, commonly known as the Chinese Communist Party, is the founding and ruling party of the People's Republic of China. Founded in 1921, the CCP won the Chinese Civil War against the Kuomintang and proclaimed the establishment of the PRC under the chairmanship of Mao Zedong in October 1949. The CCP has since governed China and has had sole control over the country's armed forces and law enforcement... Continued in Wikipedia

→ It isn't really a debate, and it isn't politics. They built a war front and joined a foreign war front that actively targets Americans, particularly American Whites, our public servants (police, BPD, ICE, DHS, and veterans). They have either chosen to fall into a “communism cult” or are committing acts of betrayal and treason against the United States for power and control (foreign and domestic terrorism). They think this is all fun and games. They are often anti-military and have never had to make any sacrifices in order for them to enjoy the American freedoms that they have. They are rude, ungrateful, and overall just weak, overly emotional and arrogant people. For some reason they often wear “golf hats,” as if to say, “I'm the one in the c-hat, come get your loot, pics, intel, etc.” The flag color scheme is red and black. This party has lost the trust of the United States during overseas war.
